Well gal I don't know just what to say, so I'll start out by wishing you a lot of luck in the years to come. And another this pen you let me write this with isn't worth a damn. I do hope you remember all the good times we have had since we first met, and, the times we use to go to the show together when we got up our quarters ~~up~~ and went to the show or some where like that. I do know one thing even though you are a pain where a pill won't reach, you are a swell girl from the word go. I may beat on you all the time, but when it comes right down to it you know I don't really mean to hurt you, but if I did you'll at least have some black and blue places to remember me by. ^{HAHA}

Well baby doll it is getting late and I have a lot of things to do before tomorrow and it is getting close to the end of the page ~~of~~ so

Lots and lots of love to you in all the years to come. (from me that is)

Lots of Love to ya

THROUGHOUT LIFE one must see himself and his work in proper perspective if he is to achieve genuine success. Education, of course, is the keyword. One learns only by study, correction of past mistakes, and practice.

AN ACKNOWLEDGED leader in secondary education, Phoenix Union High School spotlights difficulties students must overcome to achieve progress. Truth, unpleasant at times, must be recognized, for no amount of fuzzy thinking and sugar-coating can lead to good citizenship.

WITH THE CAMERA lens as a symbol, The Phoenician staff offers pictorial evidence that our school is in sharp focus as to its democratic achievements and its goals . . .

So a very nice

Leadership Calls For Preparation

FRIENDLY smiles characterize Dean of Girls Iscah Mateer and Boys' Dean R. E. McCullar.

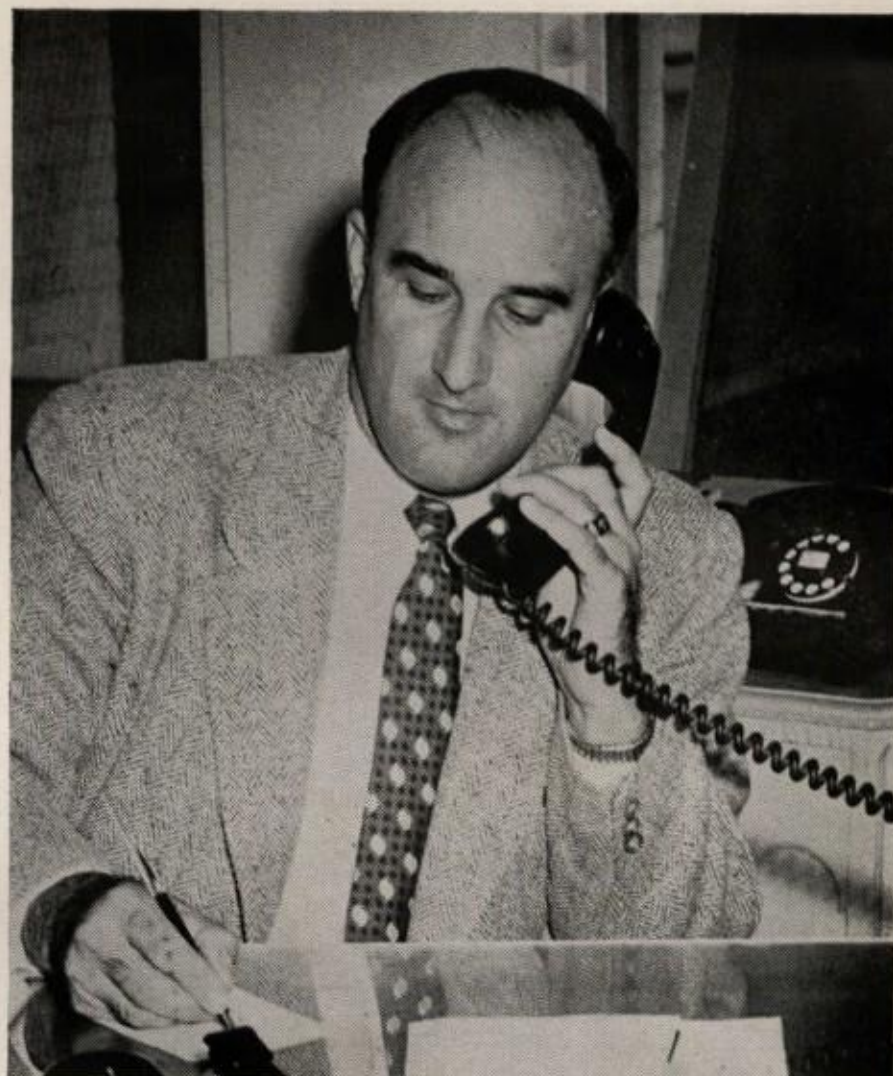

PRINCIPAL CARTER chuckles over an item in the Coyote Journal.

ADMIRABLY PREPARED to lead students and faculty toward successful goals each year are Principal James S. Carter and the deans, Miss Iscah Mateer and R. E. McCullar. Gifted with a fine sense of humor and a genuine feeling of warmth for young people, they daily exert worthwhile influence.

IT IS NO SECRET that teacher and student morale is high at Phoenix Union High School. A spirit of co-operation and progress is evident everywhere . . . in the classroom, at the ball game, on the campus, in assemblies. Visitors are quick to note this cheerful, buoyant attitude. "Your school is wonderful . . . so democratic and friendly . . ." they exclaim.

Expert Skipper At The Helm . . .

EVER BUSY is Supt. Harold L. Gear, who heads Phoenix Union High Schools and Phoenix College.

Meeting Each Problem Ably and Well

WITH TWO more schools added to their heavy load, our Board of Education continues to meet each problem with the confidence and skill born of experience. These community leaders do an outstanding job of directing the destinies of the Phoenix High Schools and Phoenix College. Altogether, there are seven high schools and the college in the system . . . each with its many problems.

MOREOVER, NEW PROBLEMS continue to arise. With thousands of families migrating to Arizona from other states, the schools in Phoenix get a steady stream of newcomers. Maintenance and administrative costs of secondary education are still climbing; the complexities of a changing world reflect new perplexities to those in charge of the education of America's young people. We are fortunate in our choice of leaders.

BOARD OF EDUCATION: Dr. Norman A. Ross, Mrs. F. A. Bons, Frank Haze Burch, Jay Hyde, and Dr. Trevor G. Browne.

REGISTRAR William Gates at his desk.

Things Always Are Humming Over There In Building One!

SERVICE IS WHAT students want when they boom up to the Registrar's Office. And service they get. That doesn't mean, necessarily, they receive just what schedule change they thought they required; sometimes, they leave with a clearer understanding of their goal — and without the change of schedule. But students have grown accustomed to finding the right answers when they have a conference with Registrar William Gates or his efficient staff.

BUSIEST OFFICE on the campus, the Registrar's Office is the key to each student's daily program. There all information is kept, ready at a moment's notice, for use of those who have responsibility to keep Joe Hi-School on the right track. Here, indeed, is kept a sharp focus on the student population at P.U.H.S.

Registrar's Office—Busiest Place On Campus

OFFICE WORKERS keep busy, even while looking pretty for the cameraman! From left are Mildred Overton, Jeannette Armstrong, Ann Gupton, Helen Thomas, Roberta Stevenson, and Edna Baker. Their efficiency and goodwill are constant.

Secretaries On The Job . . .

SECRETARIES, Nadine Dearing and Betty Pretzer keep things running smoothly in the Principal's Office . . . including the switchboard and post office.

Pleasant Smiles, Efficient Action . . .

COME AND GET IT! Especially if this coat or that book are your lost property! Louise Arthur, deans' secretary as well as custodian of Lost and Found Department, has a time getting owners and lost goods together. At Right, student Riggins removes a bundle of daily bulletins printed under direction of Mrs. Arthur. The Bulletin always meets that Period 2 deadline!

Good Citizens Take Duties Seriously

SIGN HERE! Mr. Lombardi is registered as an Arizona voter by Mrs. Helen Hinton while in background Mr. Beals gets a similar service by courtesy of Mrs. Marjorie Blossom. Registration tables were set up in Auditorium lobby. Other teachers waiting to sign up include Messrs. Mullins, Rodgers, Sincoff, Johnson, and Jamison, and Misses June Roof and Sue Davis.

It's A Privilege

IN AMERICA FREE MEN and women must be alert to the duties of citizenship or face the danger of losing its privileges. Phoenix Union's teachers, practicing what they preach, were among the first to re-register when the State Legislature decreed that all Arizonans who wish to vote at the next elections must sign up. Whatever the occasion, local, state, or national election, teachers like to exercise their rights as voters. They set a good example for tomorrow's citizens who are vitally interested in the vote.

PROBLEMS OF MANAGING the student body's money during an average school term are large and often perplexing. But wise heads and experience, to go with the youthful enthusiasm and clear thinking of student representatives, keep the Student-Faculty Finance Committee on an even keel. Many thousands of dollars are thus handled each year.

Mr. Carlton Allen, Principal James S. Carter, Bob Goldfarb, Alleen Pace, and Pat Finley. Every opportunity is given students to understand how student body money is gathered and spent.

Get Ready, Folks, Here Comes A Crowd!

NOBODY HAS MORE experience at crowd-handling than the Registrar's Office . . . except one place: the Bookstore! Whether it's book-buying time, or selling time . . . time to pay dues, or get a ticket to the All-

School Play, you can be sure of a crowd heading straight for the Bookstore. But no such problem ruffles our Carl Allen and his staff. They are old timers at crowd-handling. No long waits; no disgruntled customers turning away; every person takes his turn and gets full justice.

VERY PROUD of their new Bookstore, Mr. Allen and his co-workers see to it that the place remains inviting to visitors, not only because it is an attractive place, but also because it abounds in good buys for our thrifty students and teachers. Our new trophy case also is in the Bookstore.

Every Phoenician Was Represented

CONGRATS! Student Body President Ted Mitchell expresses the school's admiration for Dave Cano who won national honors for his work in the General Motors automobile design contest. Plaque was officially presented to Phoenix Union High School.

Legislators At Work

FOR THE GOOD governing of our student body, Student Council operated on the most democratic of principles.

Meeting periodically during third periods in the Auditorium, the Council considered problems relating to every student: citizenship, pep rallies, charity drives, health campaigns, juvenile delinquency. They set standards for election campaigns, rules for cafeteria conduct, campus courtesy. Elected representatives came from every homeroom and reported back to their "constituents" after each meeting. Every student thus was directly informed.

STUDENT COUNCIL gathers to hear Pat Finley's report on a juvenile delinquency conference she had attended the week previous. Student Officers Mitchell and Gilliland have backs to camera.

Friendship Keynotes Board's Work

IN SHARP CONTRAST on school problems this year was the Board of Control. Always ready to extend a helping hand, the Board maintained the dignity and fairness typical of Phoenix Union High School's student government. Organized to administer the affairs of the PUHS student body, this group, ably advised by Mr. John Waters, kept true its aim: to help every student become a better citizen.

ON THE BOARD WERE capable student leaders who also maintained a top degree of popularity. They served as a guidance council to students who had lost 15 or more merit credits. In order to assist these students more effectively, the board studied each student's individual problems and went to great lengths to reach a workable solution.

THE OFFICERS explain that the 30-year-old merit credit system is not fundamentally for the purpose of administering punishment but rather one by which students can add to their senior class rank, earn scholarships and achieve other rewards that come with high merit credit ratings.

FAME ISN'T LIMITED to the Phoenix Union Campus either! The Board did such a good job this year that it brought statewide recognition when the job of the "Student Court" was explained in Arizona Days and Ways. Its reputation has spread so much already that one of the first things visitors to our campus always ask to see is the Board at work.

Every Girl At Phoenix Union Rates High

WITH THE SPOTLIGHT on activities for all, Girls' League sponsored the successful "Evening in Paris" Midnight and Roses formal ball on November 14 and the annual Sweetheart ball on April 24 which themed "Way Back When". They also sponsored coed parties, candy and cookie sales, and co-sponsored the All-School Follies. Over $1,000 went to help needy students and for Thanksgiving and Christmas projects.

FOLLOWING THE THEME "Futurama" this year, the League groups held general sessions dealing with three phases of the theme: Faith, Friendship, and Fortune. Conventions were held at Casa Grande, Snowflake, and Glendale, in that order.

CENTRAL COUNCIL consists of class council officers, department heads, and League officers. Dean of Girls' Iscah Mateer is sponsor. Every girl in school is a member of Girls' League and any girl who wants to attend meetings may join her class council. Here indeed is democracy at work. Participation in any League activity spelled friendship and many happy hours to every one of the girls.

Boys' Federation

PROBLEMS seem easy to solve when these fellows get together. Federation Officers Tabor, Hall, and Mitchell confer with Dean McCullar.

It's A Good Campus For Good Sports

WHEN GOOD FELLOWS get together . . . it's always good weather. The spirit of comradeship and general friendliness permeates the Boys' Federation, a union consisting of every boy in school. Problems of special interest to the fellows are handled by the Federation Cabinet, and rules are set up to do the most good for the greatest number.

THE FEDERATION joins forces with the Girls' League to sponsor the All School Follies, a change-over from the days when Mor Follies, the all-male show, was a burlesque of Les Folies.

THIS YEAR'S variety performance, "Hey, Rube!" featured a harem dance by football heroes that recalled the old days. Other activities included co-sponsorship of the Frontier Dance and patrol work in the Cafeteria lines. Money raised by the Federation is used to help needy boys remain in school. Democracy and sportsmanship spark this group.

BOYS' FEDERATION: When they were told that at any moment a picture of Marilyn Monroe would appear in the upper corner, this group concentration resulted. Seated are Lopez, Hulen, Sid Mitchell, Tabor, Ted Mitchell, Duffy, and White. Standing: Sunshine, Dean McCullar, Caldwell, Berlemann, Borden, Kunkel, Sutter, Steele, and Sanchez. Note that Steele disbelieved cameraman!

PTA Campaigns To Keep Coyotes In Good Health

A REAL BOON to Coyote health was the Parent-Teacher Association, which combined forces with the Health Department to sponsor such worthwhile projects as the hearing tests to all freshmen and vision tests to all new students. They were on hand to help, too, with the X-Ray program. As important as was their willing co-operation during these work sessions, even more impressive to students and teachers, was the cheerful attitude they displayed and their completely unselfish concern for advancement of Phoenix Union High School.

LEADERS WERE Mrs. E. D. Tussey, president; Mrs. Roy Harrington, first vice-president; Mrs. Glenn S. Pace, second vice-president; Mrs. K. M. Gerrard, recording secretary; Mr. Harry Phillips, treasurer, and Mr. William Mason, auditor. They were solidly backed by hundreds of interested parents, including teachers with teenage children.

OBVIOUSLY enjoying the food are these Parent-Teachers who attended the Spanish dinner which climaxed the membership drive.

WE NEVER ALLOW Johnny to use the car after 1 a. m.! Topics to that effect helped spark such parent discussions as illustrated here, under guidance of Dr. Ray Emery, curriculum consultant and co-sponsored by PTA and the Homemaking Department.

Our Parents Compare Notes On Teenagers

PARENT-TEACHERS ALSO brought to our school adults interested in the PTA-sponsored parent education classes. Regular meetings were far above average in enthusiasm and attendance. Another high light was the Founder's Day program, featuring a style show of fashions from the beginning of Phoenix Union's PTA to the present day.

A SPANISH DINNER sparked the membership drive, which brought approximately 500 members into the helpful organization. Year's windup, of course, was the Graduation Ball in the Boys' gymnasium, honoring the graduates of 1954.

THE PARENT-TEACHER organization does its best work, of course, as the link between school and community. Should any problem arise to threaten education's progress here, the PTA would lead the battle in the school's defense.

MANY THANKS! Membership Chairman Pace accepts an application from Mr. Duffy during the PTA enrollment.

Chow Time!

CAN'T EAT another bite! These plump but happy Cafeteria customers attest to the quality of food served.

HEY! LEAVE SOME FOR ME! squeals Waddell as Thonen and Hoover help out with the dessert. Right: Contented customers include Manning, Mitchell, Sanchez, Harrington, Coach Winningham and Powell. Note the popularity of milk on menu!

Designed For Those Who Like Good Food . . .

AND WHY NOT? All that good grub means new energy for hungry Mr. Shepard . . . but appreciative Mrs. Kennedy wonders where the 145-pounder will stow it all. Looking on, with equal amusement is Mabel Kronk.

LUNCH TIME is a pleasure, too, for those who use the large tables in the Quad. Many Phoenixians bring lunches, not only because it is economical but also because it allows time for relaxation while eating. Usually they supplement their home fare with soda pop or milk from the stand. Newly-planted trees will line the area with welcome shade by the start of our next school year.

In The Evening By The Moonlight

THAT'S FOR ME! Hungry June Roof awaits a sizzlin' hamburger prepared by Chef Nelson.

Class Dismissed! Time For Teachers To Play!

EASY DOES IT. What sad tale is this? History teachers sob crocodile tears as they do a charade on "We came just to Beria . . ." at the faculty fun fest. From the left are funsters Kolberg, Ellis, Anderson, Ogle, and Wagoner.

LINE UP! AHEAD is the feed bag . . . Teachers at the fall party in the Cafeteria get into the line leading to refreshments. Rex Cline, left, really hasn't two heads, he's just real hungry. Mildred Neely, Ruth Bradish, Mila Bray, and Lloyd Jamison seem more resigned to the waiting. New teachers took the brunt of fun-poking, but they had even more fun than the practical jokers.

With English Accentuation . . .

FOLLIES PREVUE: C. E. Willson gets an idea of the forthcoming "Hey, Rube!" from Director Willard Jacquot, who displays a poster.

PUBLICATIONS problems were constant company for Ron Miller, left, and Scott Nelson, Journal and Phoenician advisers.

They're Letter Perfect . . .

WORTHWHILE ideas are readily found in the English Journal agree Helen Etz, Chauncy Shepard, Helen Stewart, Mila Bray, and Gladys Rios. BELOW: Even English teachers can look happy at the end of a school day! Here are Georgia Goold, Guy Foster, Doris DeLap, and Ethel Brown.

WHETHER WRITTEN, spoken, or unexpressed, thorough knowledge of the English language is a must for those who seek success in America. Many who have the false notion that typewriting erases the need for clear penmanship, or that movies and TV eliminate worries of those who "dislike to read" are set right by well-informed teachers who know their English and can teach it.

EVERY PHOENICIAN, from the poor reader and the handicapped speaker to the would-be actor or story writer, gets rich help and encouragement from these experts. Perhaps most importantly, students learn to appreciate the value of sound training in English—from the standpoint of economics as well as for the genuine pleasure such learning can bring.

Really Easy To Si!

AND AWAY WE GO! declare Spanish teachers Joe Santo, Blanche Adams, and Maxwell Powell (upper group) as they unfurl travel posters of Mexico. Below: More pictures of foreign places interest Rita Cannell, Martha Robbins, Hazel Redewill, and Rose Plummer.

Travelers' Aides

FOREIGN LANGUAGES are a joy to those who travel and become acquainted with natives of distant lands. Next best, of course, is to have as a teacher one who has traveled and who knows, first hand, about these people.

PHOENIX UNION students are fortunate to have teachers of French, Spanish, and Latin who have been at the source of language arts they teach; no stay-at-homes are these, who speak with an intimate knowledge of those whose native customs and language they teach. Understanding a language and the people of foreign lands is a big step toward world unity.

Ah...Science! It's Wonderful

ROCKED by the gleeful motives of John Ewart is James (Pop) Wilson, who knows the wicked looking weapon so near his head is superlite stone, weighing only a few ounces. Watching the corn are Lawrence Kriegbaum and Dale G. Mullins.

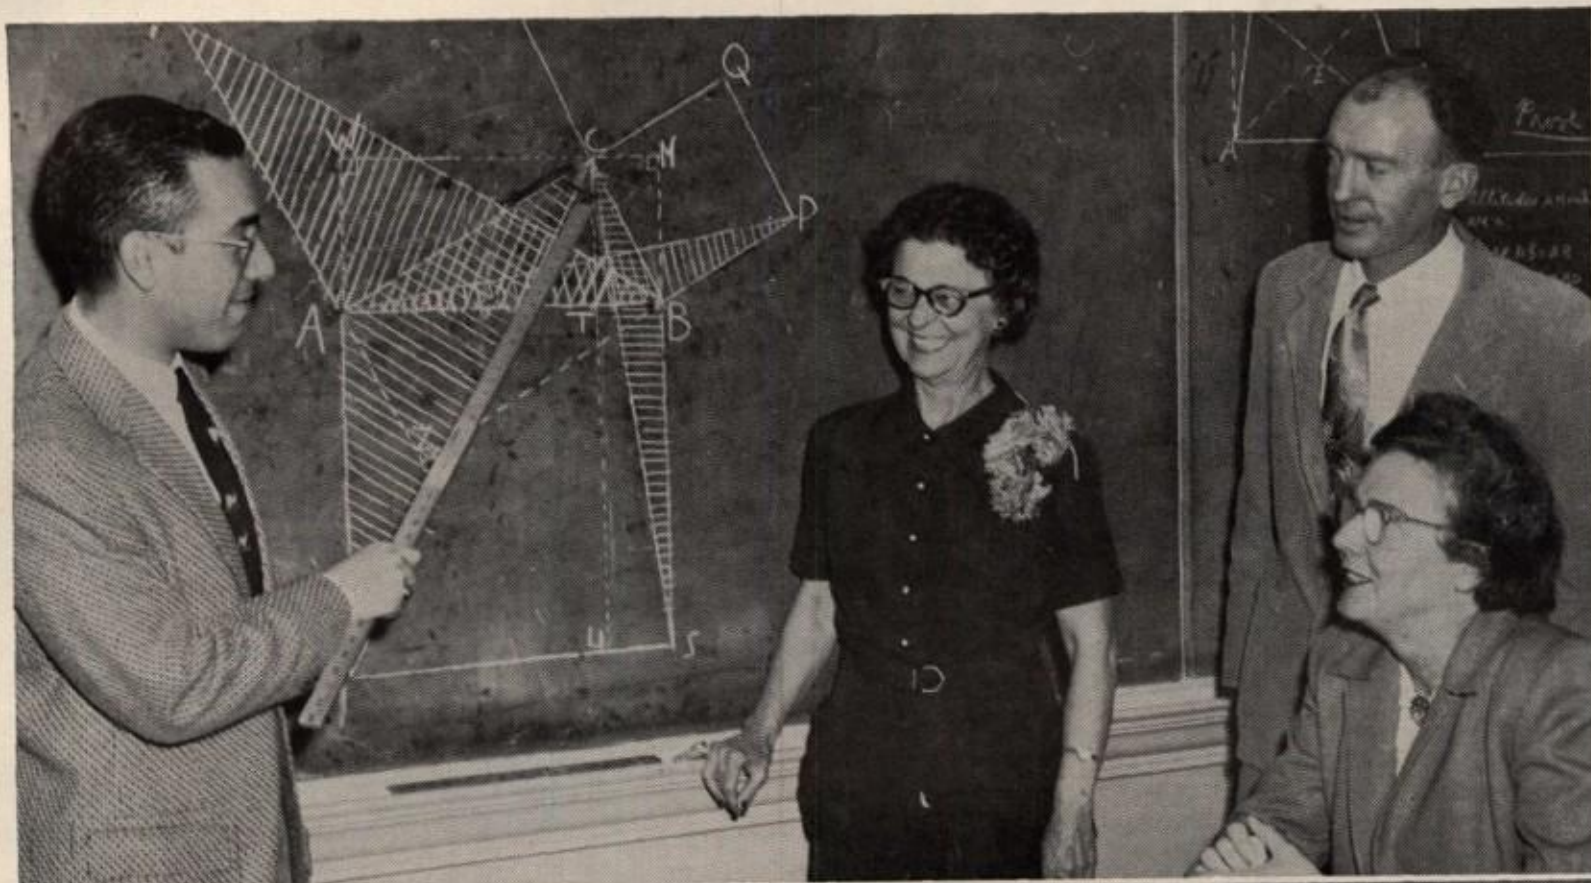

SOMETHING to look at—and through—is this fine microscope, being admired by Ralph Dixon, Clark Young, Glendale Griffiths, and Homer Turner.

HEALTH of students is the concern of Nurses Jeanette Banker and Ruth Askins. Right: A-V Director Hays checks a projector.

MATHEMATICS, the exact science, has no bugaboos for these teachers . . . who have all the answers!
Upper group: Martin Sincoff demonstrates angle values to Kathryn Munson, Kenneth Beals, and Mary Freitas.
Below: Gladys Hoelzle, Harry Phillips, Bessie Breckerbaumer, and Robert Johnson enjoy a problem in higher mathematics. Good mental gymnastics, they say!

Problem Solvers

IT'S A WORLD of ever-deeper problems. Supersonics, superdynamics, and superspeed in all directions call for super mathematicians who are able to establish the why's and wherefore's if such scientific trends are to continue. Phoenixians who sample the math courses here . . . or who digest the entire menu, are assured of the best in methods and results.

Deft Workmanship Expressing Art . . .

FINISHING a paint job on a ceramic steed is Art Instructor E. G. Monroe. Watching the operation are Julia McCann and Barbara Bailey.

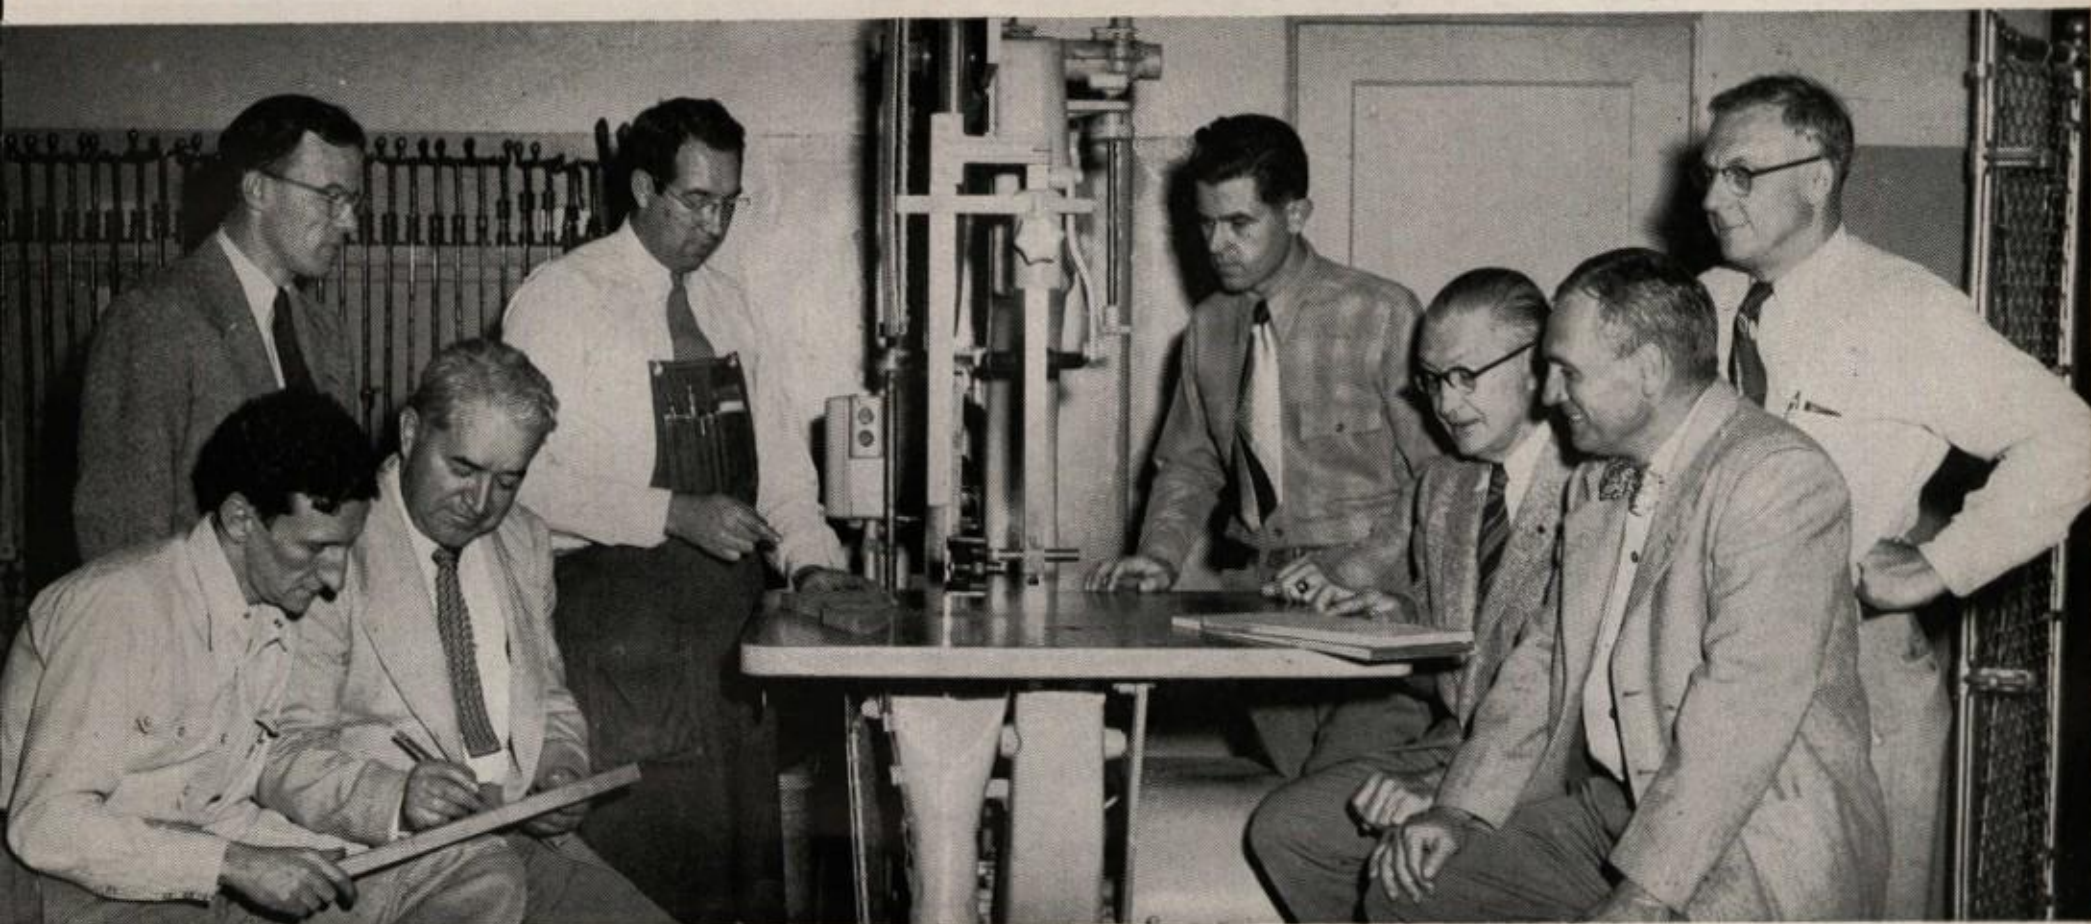

EVERYBODY learns best by example. If you can see how it is done by a skilled instructor, half the problem is solved . . . Whatever your artistic bent, watercolor, oils, ceramics, textile painting, costume design, cartooning, photography, or you-name-it, you'll find a teacher in the Art Department to help guide you.

PERHAPS YOUR artistic interest is in more rugged fields, such as metalcraft, carpentry, or architecture. You'll find excellent teachers who have most, if not all, of the answers. It is an interesting note that nearly all who make a living in any of these lines got their start in high school. A good start, too, you may be SURE!

GATHERED in the Wood Shop, around a power saw are Industrial Arts instructors Byron Hughes, Don Coursen, Lloyd Jamison, Henry Jones, Duane Cornelius, Harry L. Crockett, Barney Shehane, and Wesley Hoyer.

In The Mood For Melody . . .

HARMONY IS THEIR business, over in the Music Department. Music specialists are Dr. Milton K. Rasbury, Eugene Lombardi, Harvey Zorn, Kathleen Hergt, and Sue Davis.

MUSIC THAT PLEASES emanates daily from classes in orchestra, band, and singing at the Stadium rooms of Dr. Milton Rasbury and associates. They make dull days seem bright and the area sweet with harmonious tones about every hour in the school year. Our music teachers are also magicians, as the results in assembly and concert programs they've sponsored this year so clearly have established.

WHEN YOU ENTER our Library for the first time, you are impressed by its size, beauty, and quiet efficiency. Trained librarians work closely with various departments to see that students are directed into best possible channels of research and good reading. It is not strange that students who learn to use the Phoenix Union Library correctly inevitably learn to appreciate its enriching possibilities.

LIBRARIANS HAVE all the answers . . . or if they don't, they know where to look 'em up! At Left are Marguerite Marshall, Mary

For Everybody, Glowing Health

GATHERED near the GAA bulletin board are Physical Ed teachers Berneil Maxey, Mary Louise Branigan, Ruth McNeill, and Elizabeth Blake.

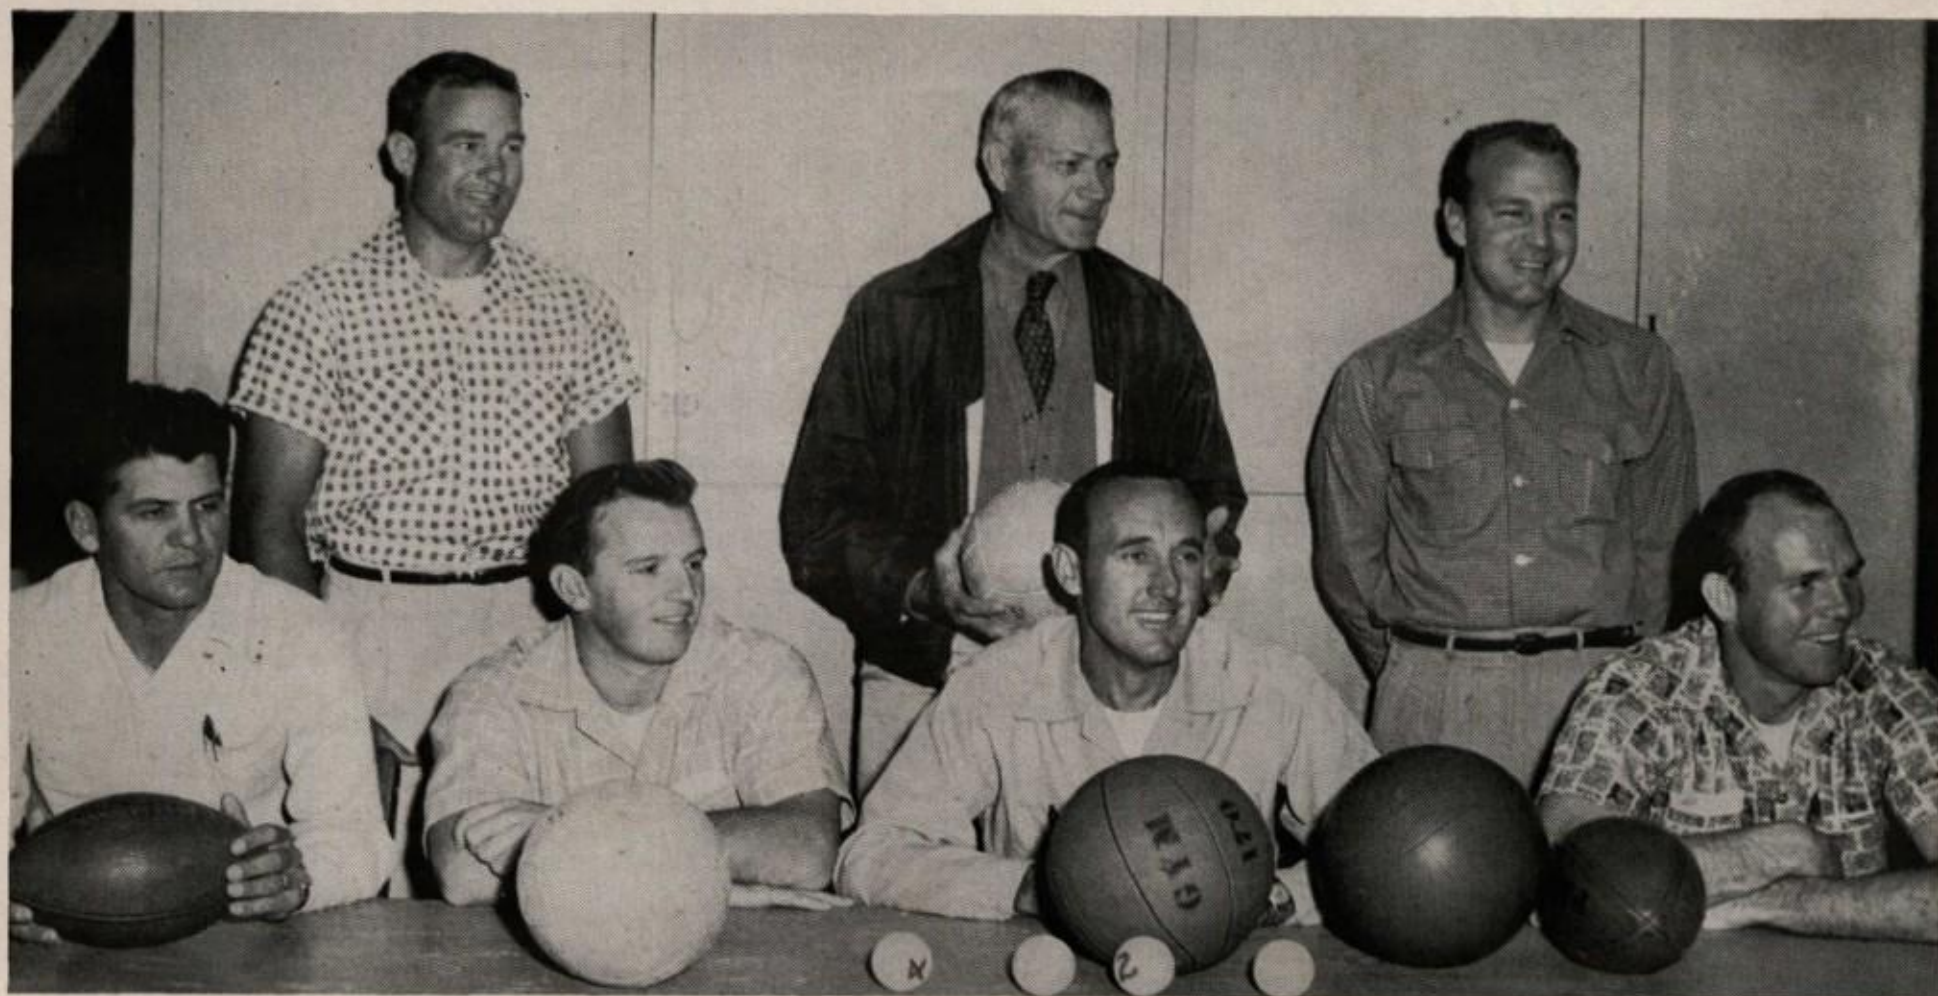

Flex Your Muscles

WHAT WOULD school be like without the P. E. program! In many ways, school would really be a daily drudgery, with no break in the routine; no basketball to toss, no track to trot around; no need to develop muscles unless you were gonna use 'em! Best of all, students learn to play fairly, cleanly; they are given every opportunity to develop into strong, healthy Americans.

HAPPY INDEED should be these P. E. teachers, who "play" all day long! Well, anyway . . . they see that the rest of us have a good time! Seated are Coaches Martin Marich, Sam Winningham,

Home Makers With Know-How

WHETHER YOU WANT the secret of good pie making, or how to fashion a chic outfit within your budget, you'll find those who can tell you — and prove it — over in the Home Making Department. These pleasant people, practical housekeepers, cooks, seamstresses, and all the rest of the skills so valued by today's homelovers, give their students an insight to modern living not obtainable elsewhere in such a degree.

They Mind Your Business

MACHINES can do tricks if you hit the right keys, decide Business Educators Betty McCubbin, Robert Youngmun, Emma Brosam, John Caceletto, Charles Adair, Edith Haner, and Dorothy Burdsal.

Success Formula:

AMERICA IS FAMOUS for its system of capitalism . . . a system that works well because it represents free enterprise. But without a study of business methods and the lessons learned both from those who succeed and those who may fail, the system might not do so well.

STUDENTS of Business Education are well schooled in causes and effects in the business world. They are given the benefit of valuable experience shared by teachers who have learned first hand how to spell out efficiency in the office, at the bank, and in merchandising.

LINED UP TO sing the "Business Education Blues," perhaps, are teachers Ruth Bradish, Charles Cox, Alice Fox, E. L. Rodgers, William Mason, Eugene Brock, Vivian Phillips, and Rex Cline. Seated at the tabulator is Pauline Poteet.

Social Educators

Worldly Wise:

SOCIAL EDUCATION, a better term for what many students still refer to as the "history" department, offers new vistas of thought to the average Phoenician. ABOVE: Surrounded by their maps and news magazines are Historians Alda Sherman, Ruth Cole, R. H. Ogle, Eric Kolberg, Cecel Nicolay, and Don Ellis. BELOW: Preparing to test their miniature guillotine on poor Pancho are Harry Eagan, E. D. Tussey, J. J. Wagoner, and Lucille Anderson.

Look What You Won . . . !

MORE FUN: New Teachers Parsons and Bailey, top score winners, admire the ceramic creations prepared by art students as prizes for the annual Faculty Frolic.

Building Orientation Bridges . . .

THAT TERRIFIC bridge between grade school and high school can seem like an impossible obstacle to the timid newcomer. But thanks to our Orientation program, freshmen get the right approach to that bridge and travel safely across to full-fledged high school life.

ORIENTATION TEACHERS, specially trained for the counselling program, serve students all through their four high school years, always ready with sound advice and prepared to step in and assist their students should they need particular help.

ORIENTATION faculty members gather for a council meeting. Seated are Ethel Rosenberry, Keats Kelly, Carolyn Lane, Thomas

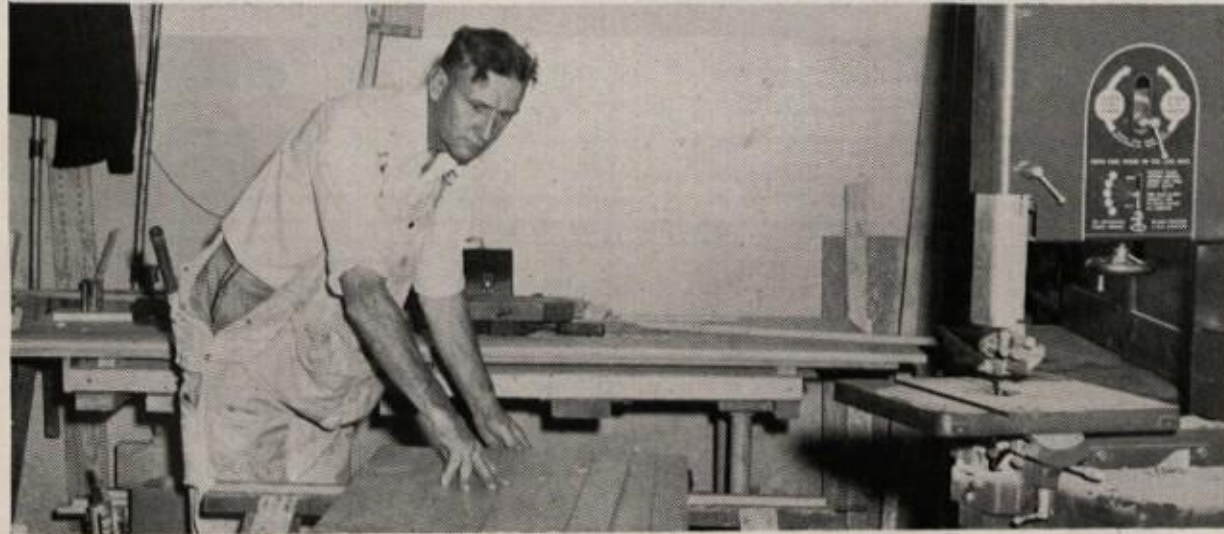

McCarty, Josephine Rogers, Clifford Prather, Eleanor Wallingford, and John Waters. Standing are William Gates and Marrión Parsons.

Teachers Also Can Relax . . . !

AND NOW, MADAM . . . Interrogator Dixon is shown giving Mrs. Etz a rough time, in a skit at the faculty's annual Fun Fest. Right: Who could this be but famous dress designer Dior and Model Sue Davis depicting the shorter hemlines for '54! Note the hectic hose! Below: Old friends gather for a chat. From left are Mrs E. W. Montgomery, Mrs. Ethel V. Craig, Mrs. Ruth McNeill, and Mrs. Harold Gear. Occasion was reception in Social Hall.

Basement Bee Hive

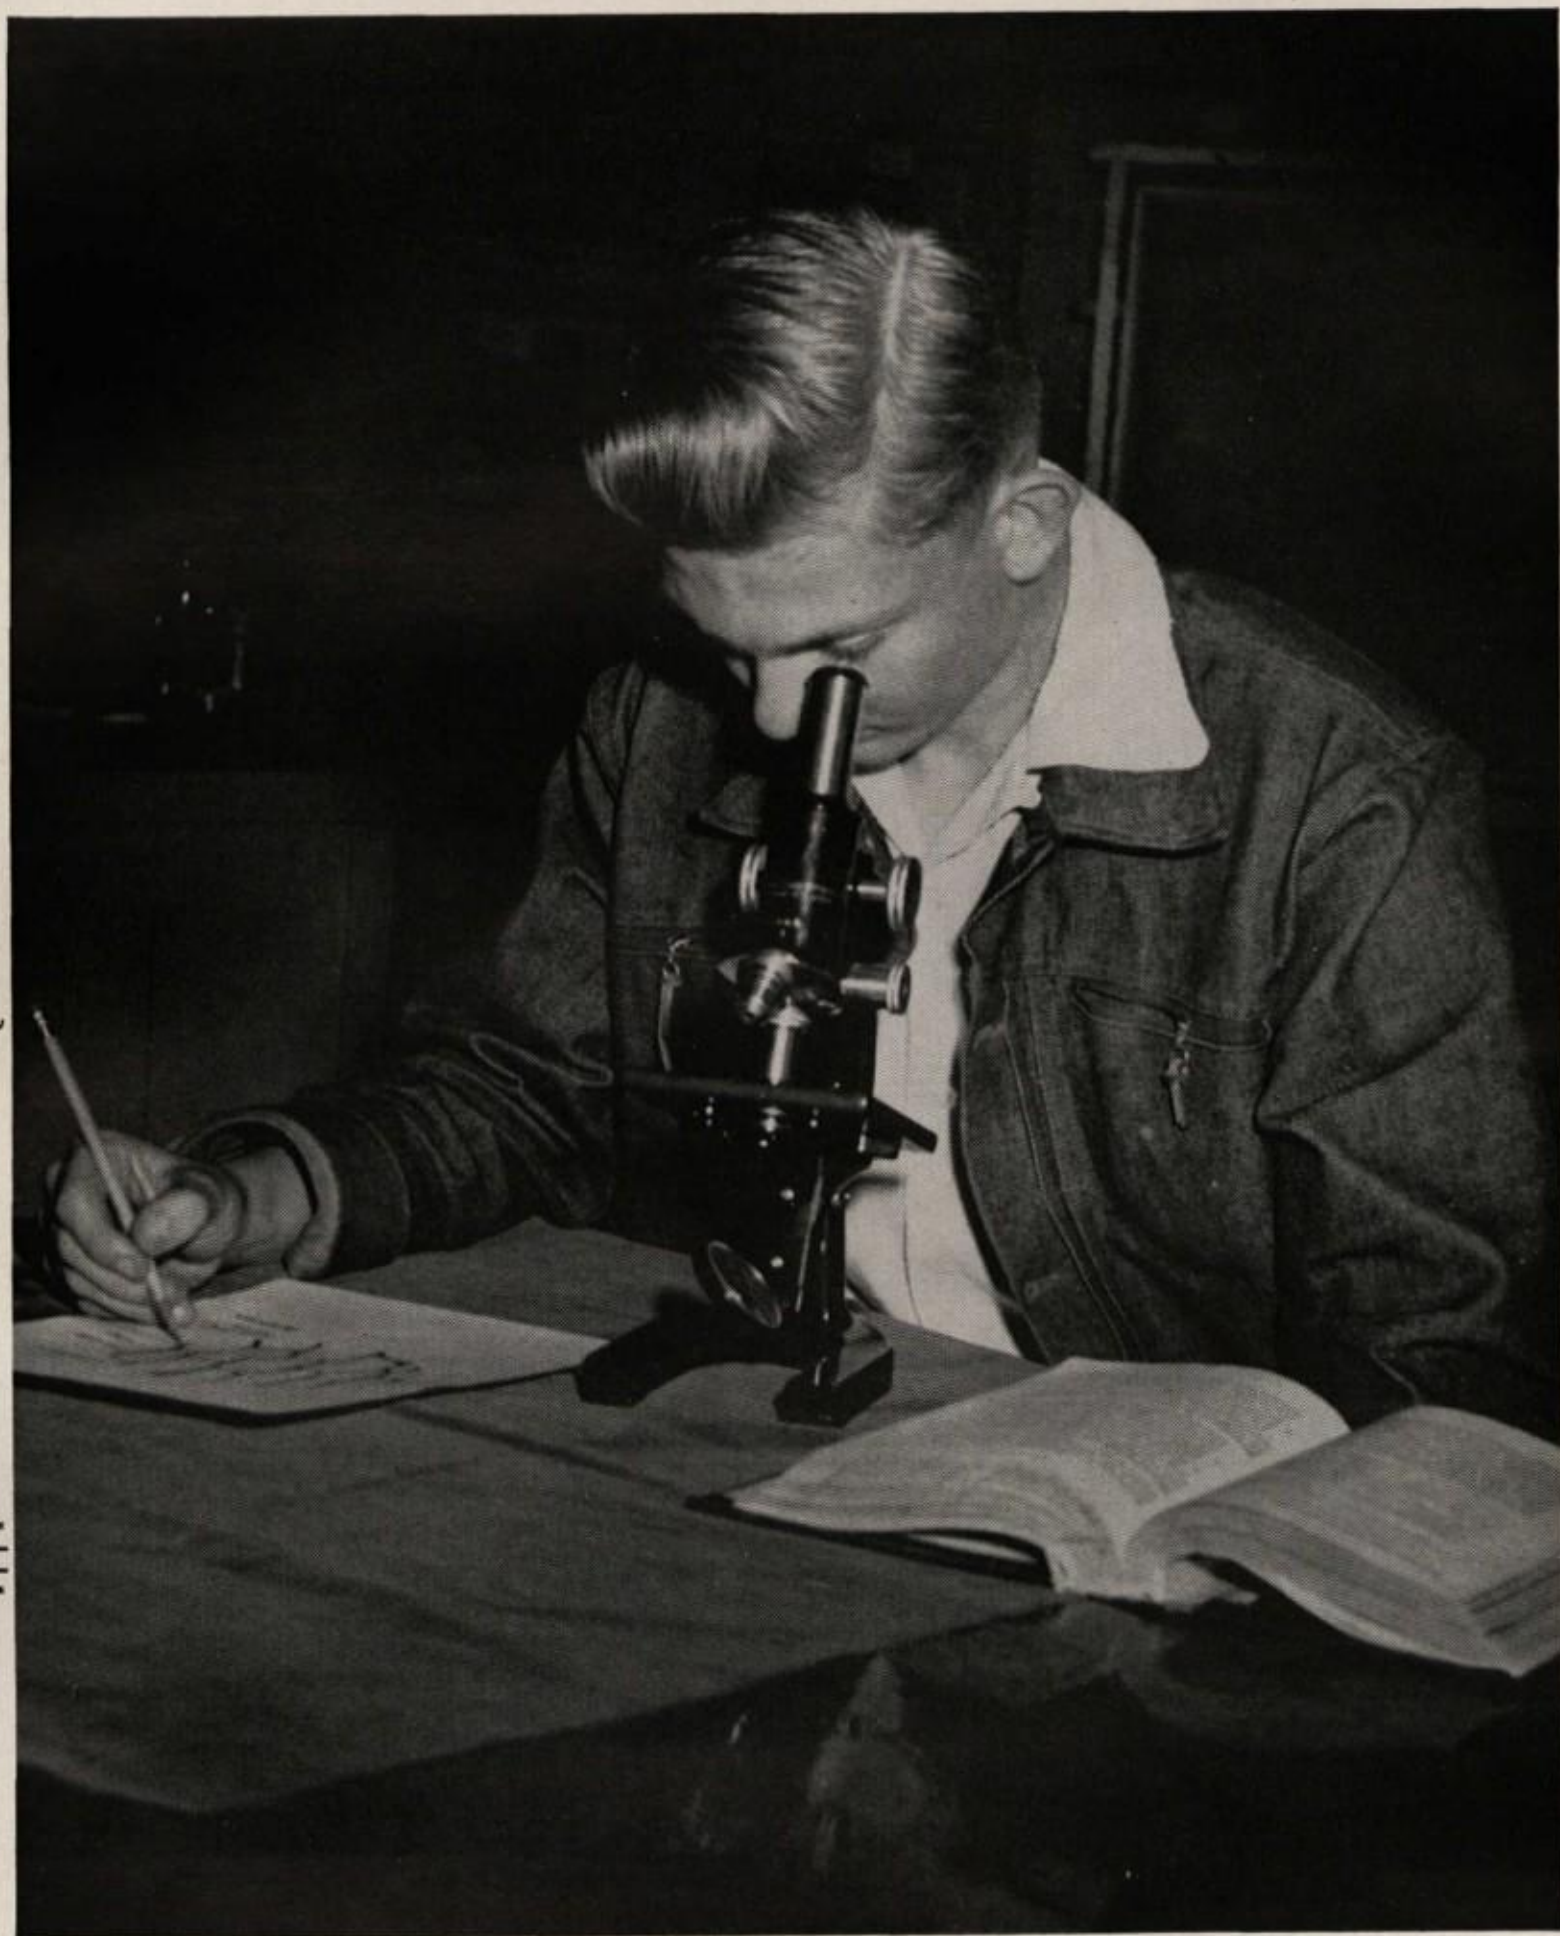

ALL THAT BUSTLING in Fifth Building basement is no sham . . . it's for real, and everyday, too! Upper left: At the counter are Bob Shirk, Jim Watts, Joe Harvey, Clarence Rensehler, Harvey Mitchell. Right: Painters work year-'round to keep our plant shining. GANGWAY! Up the stairs comes the old pink piano, borne by Messrs. Holloway, Huffaker, Zoacht, Mitchell, and Williams. Bottom: Carpenter George Loew and Repairman Jerry Fisher, right, waste no time.

~~Dear~~ Nona
 Hello Nona
 Well at the class of last year we are another year here we
 And its really been nice going around and having fun to gether. We've got to make our party graduation a think of me mess!!
 Here's hoping you'll because I always time in the future Nona, one of remember you as always Morris best!

Dear Nona, you're one of the neatest kids I know. We went to school during our 1st year together & here we are seniors only at different school.
 Keep that sparkling personality

School At Work

To a gal who uses the telephone,
Quite a gal this here Nona (?).
She's quite a gal, (she's strutier)
For I know no gal who is nuttier!
So Lots of Luck & Best Wishes, I'll sign now so you'll know who this is.

Science's Many Mysteries Await Our Probing . . .

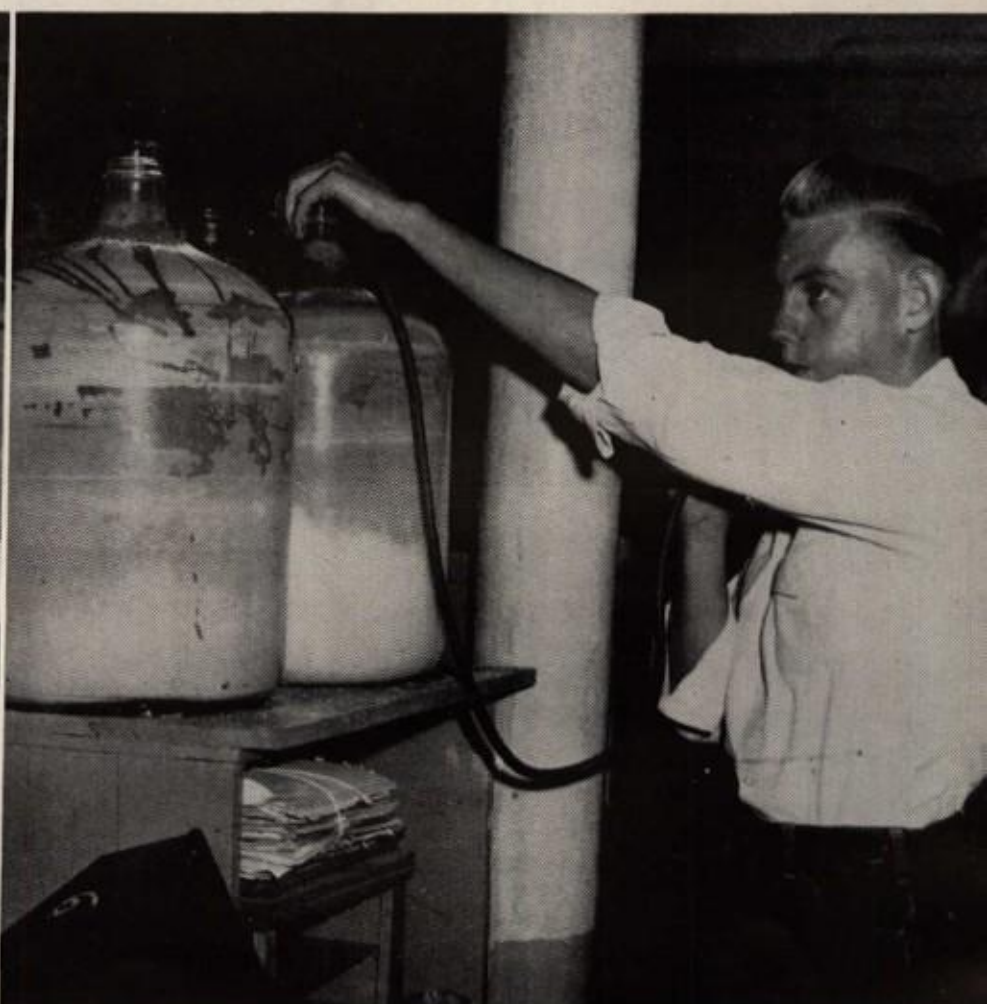

STATE EGG Inspector Kaffenberger ignores the age-old query, "Which came first, the chicken or . . .?" to lecture science students on the grading and marketing of eggs.

WONDERS OF THE WORLD are hidden in test tubes and chemistry bottles . . . waiting for curious students to discover. It is the only sure way to learn scientifically. You simply must do the experiments yourself to learn the facts. Reading 'em isn't enough!

OUR STUDENTS of science enlarge their understanding of natural forces while acquiring a basic formula for study. Biology, chemistry, meteorology, physics, and general science courses are offered by well qualified teachers. Class work and lab are never dull.

LEARN BY DOING: Zapata and classmates in chemistry lab probe the mysteries of the elements as a part of their knowledge pursuit.

Right: Lenzing employs lung power to build up air pressure in a five-gallon jug. Then comes the experiment . . . !

Problems To Solve

DON'T GIVE up, yet! Smith explains new angles to problem's solution as Kurtz and Milstead check.

Guesses Don't Count

IN THIS DAY of jets and atoms we must be able to think clearly and concisely in order to get ahead. We must be able to do things on our own, and do them right. Slipshod methods won't do; guesses can't take the place of genuine knowledge. It's the facts that count; facts and figures!

WHAT? GIRLS in Machine Shop? Seigal and Vega are too busy to reply. The field, obviously, is not for boys alone!

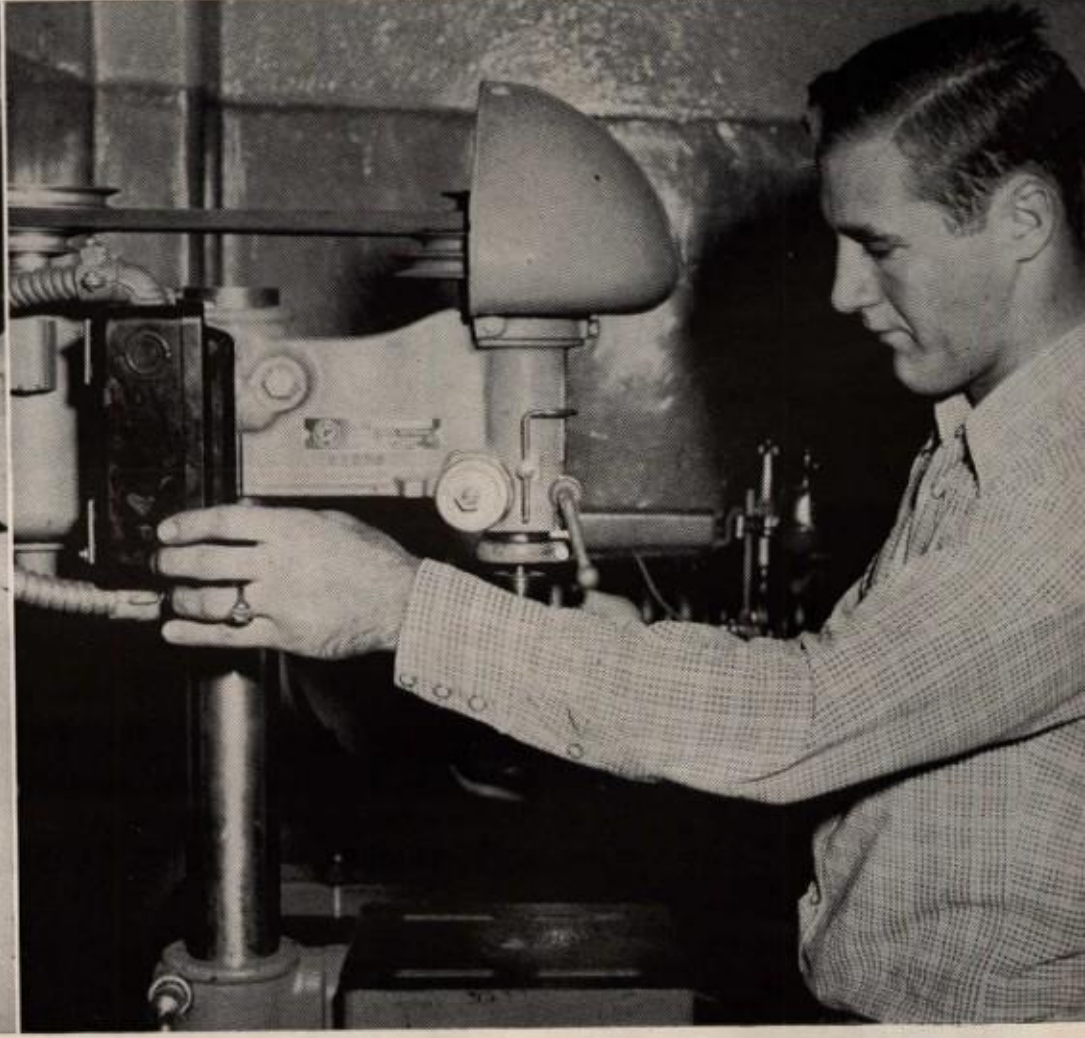

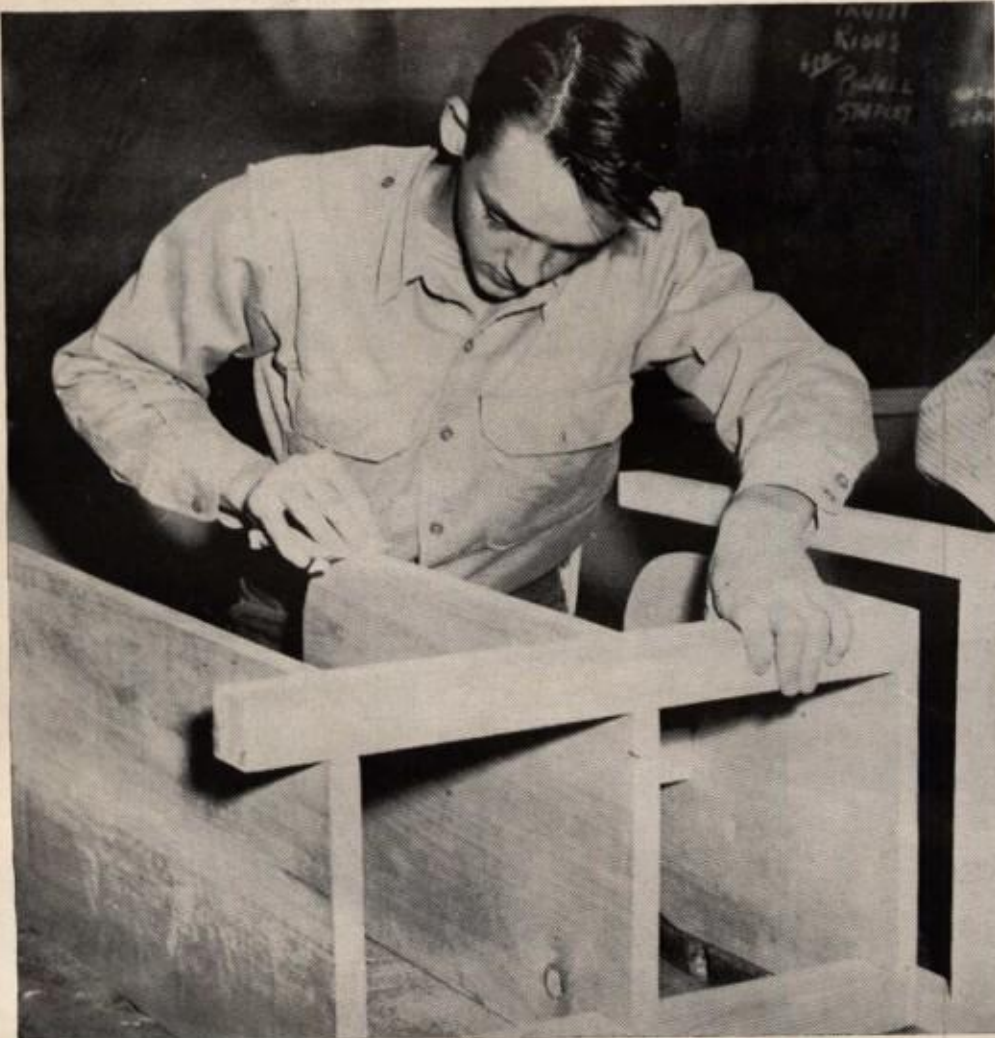

Opportunity Knocks On Many Doors . . .

THEY HAVE WHAT it takes to make things over in the Industrial Arts Building. That's a large statement, but it's the truth . . . and it applies not only to the equipment on hand, the alert interest of students, and the materials, but to the well-trained teachers also.

STUDENTS interested in any of the manual arts find a world of opportunity awaiting here. Metalcraft, leather work, radio, TV, machine shop, printing, architecture. Take your choice . . . and perhaps even find a trade you'd do well to prepare for!

Nor is the field restricted to boys. Many of the gentler sex take advantage of the training offered in Machine Shop, Wood Shop and the like. Most popular with them, however, is the metal and leathercraft department, where novel gifts bring satisfaction . . . as well as good grades to the young artisans.

ELBOW GREASE has its place even in a modern carpentry shop, Miller admits. Looks like a bookcase on its way. Right: Machinist Millam at the drill press, adjusts the machine to do a technical job. Many get a vocational start here.

Busy Hands, Brains: RADIO HAMs intent on a communications problem are Jones, Reilly, Miller, Howarth, Sturm, Gable, Wong. Lower Left: Imler draws plans for a dream house. Right: Watch out for those fingers, Doc! Morneau's concern brings only a grin from Mr. Hughes.

TEACHER Dorothy Burdsal approves of Gloria Adams' efforts on the big Remington Line-O-Type, one of many modern additions to the Business Education Department.

When You Study Here, It's Business With Pleasure . . . !

AFTER GRADUATION . . . then what? Recommended students from the Business Department usually have a great advantage over others, because the thorough training and expert instruction offered prepare interested students for worth-while positions. A chance to specialize in various phases of the great business world is given. Among some of the important electives offered are typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping, office machines, office training, clerical procedures, business math, advertising, selling, and many others. Head of our efficient Business Department is Mr. E. A. Brock.

ARIZONA BUSINESS MEN have learned to depend on Phoenix Union High School students who have been trained for office work. They have learned from past experience that any business education student who has earned the recommendation of Director Brock and his staff can be counted on to do the job. Many business-trained students take up their life's career directly after graduation. Others enter college to specialize in the field.

NO FOOLIN' AROUND for these young typists! Learning the touch-control system the correct way are, from the front, Brewer, Czdiel, Camargo, Couretas, Bearden, McFadden, Fleenor, Bortner, and others. Hundreds of Phoenix Union students become competent typists each school year. They find added practice as student secretaries or as reporters for the school's student newspaper.

RIGHT HERE was the famous Gadsden Purchase, Gonzales tells her history class, while Rose checks the map. The Purchase was theme of this year's Masque of the Yellow Moon.

WHAT LESSON CAN HISTORY teach us that we don't already know? Plenty that we should know, but may only touch upon, our teachers assure us. If men could really learn history's lessons, there would be no wars . . . no impossible trade restrictions, no misunderstandings, no borders, in fact! But until that happy Utopian day, we must study — study and try to improve the world about us on the basis of what we learn.

WE ARE GIVEN ample opportunity in Phoenix Union's big Social Education Department to study the government, social behavior, and trends local, national, and international. Well-trained teachers encourage discussion, clear thinking, investigation of source materials. And we ARE learning . . . !

History Teaches Us Many A Lesson . . .

Yes, You'll Learn ... If You're Really Interested

ENGLISH in large doses can be found in Mr. Webster's favorite book, Mr. Santo tells Manuel Terrano, a student here from Spain.

ANY PERSON INTERESTED can learn a foreign language. All it takes is long hours of study and a determination to succeed . . . plus a genuine interest in the people studied. The latter is more important than any other factor, for sympathetic understanding is akin to enjoyment; and you learn best that which is a pleasure to you.

WHETHER IT'S SPANISH, French, or Latin, the student of foreign languages is assured the best training here from eminently well-informed teachers who enjoy their work.

C'EST BIEN! TRES Bien! Instructor Redewill visibly approves Peter Gulatto's demonstration to the class on how a Frenchman exclaims, Ah, My heart! Right: Kaydonna May and Louis Escoto discuss a number of Old Spanish customs.

Let's Learn Some Words!

WORDS MEAN FUN! Miss Helen Stewart displays cartoons made by Russell Lenzing which portray special words learned in Word Study class. Russell and Mrs. Lenzing enjoy viewing the drawings at Open House.

Speaking Of English . . .

BECAUSE THREE YEARS of English are required of high school graduates, many look upon these courses with a feeling of resentment. It's normal to resent anything with the "required" label! Actually, nothing one could study in high school contributes so directly to his station in life, socially and economically. One who speaks and writes well is usually well spoken of!

EVERY TYPE OF ENGLISH training is valuable: speech, composition, drama, journalism, literary appreciation, word study. Along with the variety, imagination, and competitive fun sure to reward those interested is the continuing compensation throughout life.

Right: "The Constitution—America's Pyramid" was the title of Marshall Gollub's Oratorical speech. The PUHS winner and representative records his views on the Constitution, with the help of Mrs. Rios. Speech students make extensive use of recorder in class.

SEAMSTRESSES: It takes more than a machine to produce those attractive frocks! Here, in process of creating from pattern and material are McCann, Horton, Forthing, Escota, and Caldwell. More style and economy are their reward.

Making A Career In The Home ♦ ♦ ♦

raising, there are many more who still consider the expert knowledge of cooking, sewing, and care of children essential.

SOME WILL SAY that modern girls don't care about housekeeping. But the large number of girls enrolled in homemaking classes belies the statement. Even though many young women are looking forward to careers rather than family-

NUMEROUS COURSES are offered, including foods classes, sewing, child care, human relations, preparation for marriage. Nor is the field exclusively for girls. The number of boys enrolling, especially in human relations, increases each year.

Fair Fare . . .

WORLDLY WISE are these little Foxes! Arranging the FHA display for the State Fair are the Fox sisters, Judy, left, and Jeanne.

In The Lineup For Health ♦ ♦ ♦

CHEST X-RAYS pay off in two ways. Either you are found free of TB, or you need a more complete check and possibly treatment to save your life. Students co-operated gladly when the Healthmobile visited our school.

Always On The Alert

PREVENTION NOW MEANS longer life and better health later . . . Upon that premise, our Health Department keeps Phoenix Union Students on the alert against disease, accidents, and related dangers. In addition to complete chest X-Ray records of students, a similar check is made every two years on faculty members. Although Arizona seems to be the goal of thousands seeking cures for chest troubles, a fact that adds to the school's health worries, wonderful progress is noted year by year with our health program working in high gear.

TAKE IT EASY! Driver Training Instructor Jim Winningham cautions student Mendenhall prior to a trial run. Right: Joyce Yoder learns that her hearing is up to par. Checker is Mr. Tom Magro, hearing consultant, assisted by PTA member, Mrs. Morris.

Here's Art

On The Alert

COMPANY, HALT! The Reserve Officers unit awaits dismissal following an hour of Federal Inspection. Their official rating is traditionally at the top. Inspector this year was Colonel Winn. M/Sgt. William Alvarez served as the commandant of cadets.

Old Army Life

SOMETHING RESEMBLING regular life in the army is given the ROTC boys each day. They study strategy, gun-fire, drill for perfection in marching, giving and obeying commands . . . Never a dull moment here! Upper left: Machine Gun Team consists of Dunn, C. Cooper, D. Martin, Ruegg. Right: The Color Guard casts its shadow before. Members are Sgt. Castillo, Pfc. Verga, Sgt. Chapman, Sgt. Ennefer. Lower Left: Proud winner of the Hearst Trophy was the Rifle Team. Shown are Lt. Scofield, Lt. Col. Muirhead, Major Rockwell. Right: Capt. Harold Steward, battalion adjutant, and M/Sgt. William Alvarez, commandant of cadets, confer.

Nona,

Well, I guess you and I will be the only ones left next year that's worth a darn.

We really enjoyed running around with you kids this last semester and I'm sure glad you were around because I hate to smoke alone.

You are really a sweet girl and I want to wish ^{you} the best of luck always.

May God bless you and remember me always as your friend —

A STEP BEHIND the juniors, and a step ahead of the freshmen; but not for long — look out! Phoenix Union's sophomore class was a hustling, enthusiastic group, ready to go places. They liked to have a good time, but they could be serious minded, making Phoenix Union a better place for all of us. They helped in the various clubs and committees.

NOT ALL SOPHOMORES were Einsteins, but they proceeded to compile an enviable scholastic record. They dug in and demonstrated their worth in every situation that arose. Determined to prove that the Class of '56 is the best ever, they have convinced us that they are able to have the most fun, and still accomplish as much as the upperclassmen.

COME AND GET YOURS! Sophomores look over the individual portraits taken by the annual photographer. Bargain rates featured the informal, one-pose photos which, ordered by the dozen, were exchanged among school friends.

THESE SOPHOMORES displayed their various talents in the Sophomore Class Assembly, given in April. The assembly featured everything from Spanish dancing to clowns. First Group: Beckerleg, Chavez, Sessions, Zorbas, Bradford. Second Group: Fernandes, (at piano), Sanchez, Moreno (perched atop piano), Allen, Quintana, and Arollo. Coyotes were surprised at quality of Sophomore talent.

Don't Underestimate Sophomore Talent!

in managing the Sophomore Assembly and preparing for the annual Every Girl's Dinner.

THE ASSEMBLY, featuring variety entertainment from clowns to Spanish dancing, ranked with the year's best. The dinner has been pronounced a tip-top success, one of the finest in the festivity's 29-year history. Such participation and enthusiasm gives promise of an eventful 1954-55. Traditionally, juniors are a school's most socially active citizens.

NEVER AGAIN WILL we underestimate the ability of sophomores to organize a project or entertain an audience! The youngsters from the Class of '56 displayed grown-up tactics

Solid Citizens

FRESHMEN AT PUHS this year turned out to be pretty solid stuff. For the first few days they wandered around in bewilderment, but soon, off went that scared expression and on came confidence . . . That feeling of confusion had given away to the happy sense of "belonging" . . . of being an important part of the school. Freshmen joined clubs, attended the games and dances. Next year they'll assure incoming frosh that "School here at Phoenix Union is really fun!"

CONCENTRATION marks the faces of these freshmen orientation students during the showing of a movie.

Upstairs Seat: FROM THEIR vantage point in the sky, freshmen see everything that goes on stage in the Auditorium . . . although the hearing may not be as clear as when they'll graduate to a downstairs location. Shots were taken during regular assembly period.

Atop That Ladder Of Achievement!

STRAIGHT 1's AREN'T too bad as a starter in the freshman year! Who knows but that among these scholastic starlets may be the valedictorians of 1957! Starting at the bottom: Bradbury, Weintraub, Lyons, Leverton; Douglas, Roth, Valencia; Martin, Enochs, Wick, Patch, Glenn; Zeindel, Clepper, Moore, Fellows, Bradshaw; Malone, Yee, Wiedow, Wood; Pearson, Bandy, Vasquez.

Getting An Early Start As Leaders

QUALITIES OF LEADERSHIP show up early in most people, but the fact remains, active participation does wonders to increase one's powers in that direction. Class of '57 leaders joined the Class Council, helped plan student activities, social and athletic; they also went at their lessons in such a way as to shine on the Honor Roll. It's all a matter of attitude, many freshmen have decided. You can ring the Success Doorbell any time you're determined enough. But the hardest job of all, many find, is to get started. After that important beginning, your school activities grow — and so does your interest.

FRESHMAN COUNCIL: Bottom Row: Byrd, Miss Anderson, Morris, Fulton, Harris, Newby, Meadow, Rogers, Adams, Weintraub. Row 2: Harris, Felton, Hines, Watson, Mabry, Meza, Clawson, Koy, Lacy, Bradshaw, Valencia. Row 3: Wong, Yee, Lewis, Tanner, Mahaffey, Wood, Chapman, Pauley, Johnson, Tom, Ong, Lyons. Leadership in the Girls' League councils points the way to better school life.

Top Graders

THESE FRESHMEN MADE the Honor Roll this year. Top Group, Row 6: Maki, Alston, Olivas, Kunkel, Martin, Keating, Sutherland, Bertoni, Cooper. Row 5: Reyes, Riffe, Boizer, Harkness, Isham, Babineau, Root, Luptak, Munoz, Yee, Bertram, Deery. Row 4: Conner, Hodges, King, Dahn, Wainwright, Guzman, Westrope, Overla, Clawson, Wallace. Row 3: McAdams, Grimm, Newkirk, Rudd, Moody, Totell, Abelt, Beitzel. Row 2: Hughes, Nay, Stone, Moore, Mrozek, Koyle, Rodgers, Arnold. Bottom: Marrujo, Sprawls, Kear, Meador, Harris, Keyrouse, Masilko. Bottom Picture: Row 1: Edwards, Newby, Little, McClaskey, Rounds, Wilkerson, Conally. Row 2: Specht, Ong, Byrd, Harper, Kuntz, Mendoza, Houser, Brown. Row 3: Tom, Pauley, Sartoris, Stoker, Givens, Frane, Bloom. Row 4: King, Ormiston, Adams, Bradshaw, Hines, Martin, Lewis, Mahaffey, Marquez. Row 5: Bell, Hoy, Tatum, Evans, Dolphin, Spencer, Landry, Neff, Crum, Charlton. Row 6: Thuotte, Williams, Tipper, Yturralde, Atkerson, Garcia, Neer, Cesena, Elzey, Ellis, Walker, Cano, Stacey.

Dear Nona;

I guess it is a little hard for me too to express how much your friendship has meant to me. You are undoubtedly one of the sweetest girls I have ever known.

Remember Senior Sitch Day?! We really had a lot of fun didn't we? I am certainly sorry we hadn't met and become friends before now, though.

I believe you have two of the dearest parents I have ever known, and I certainly have enjoyed coming over and spending the evenings with you. (also eating up your mother's apple pie!!) I'll tell the luck and love in the world to you. I certainly hope everything works out between you and your mother.

we always have the love hold in our hands. May God (Nona & Donna) keep you.

How Long Does It Take For The Job?

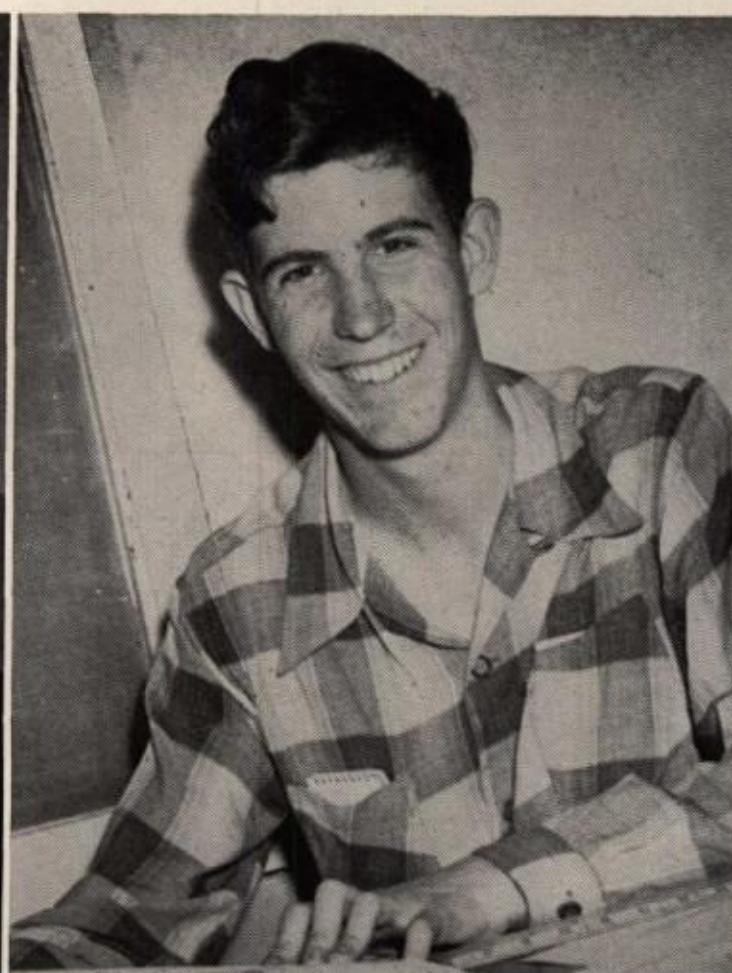

PERENNIAL PROBLEM of every yearbook staff: meeting those deadlines! It is not faintly true that an annual just grows, as a flower might, while the school year moves along. Nothing at all progresses on the book unless staffers are on the job to snap this picture, record that event, line up an appointment schedule . . . and then follow through!

BRIGHT LIGHTS in the Publications Office, night after night, and on every holiday, tell the story: there's no rest for annual staff members until the final deadline's met. Well, did they make the grade? Here's your book — over 200 pages of it. What's more, it's ready for you on time! Special thanks should go to the engravers and the printer, who did everything possible to help the staff do a top job as well as meet those ever-urgent deadlines.

KEYWORKERS on the Phoenician staff were Managing Editor Ruth McIntyre, Ad Manager Gene Falck, and Business Manager Karen Heywood. Not pictured but equally valuable were other staffers who missed supper to speed the book along.

Publications Workers ♦ ♦ ♦

DON'T GET CAUGHT in the busy rush of the Publications Office, if you value your hide! Rushing about, hitting the typewriter keys, answering the phone, proofreading, laying out copy, planning ads . . . It's no place for those who enjoy solitude and quiet! Upper Left: Telephone, Chiefie! But Mr. Nelson with Mr. Miller, lower left, is too busy in the Dark Room . . . Upper Right: Levitt and Wade admire work of Artist Som. Below: When Photo Finisher Bortner got busy, he produced classy glossies!

Alleen Pace, and Business Manager Mike Reilly. All three managed to contribute to both newspaper and yearbook in several capacities.

Problem: How To Meet That Budget!

PROBLEMS PONDEROUS ENOUGH TO perplex many an experienced publisher confronted Coyote Journal staff members all year long. Again the cost of printing had gone up; subscribers felt the pinch and were unwilling to lay down a dollar guarantee on the paper's survival. Even more schools in the Valley entered the field, seeking advertising support from local merchants who now wanted to limit their advertising. How to meet the $3500 budget?

THE STAFF MET their problem in two ways: first, they added "brighteners" and reader-appeal to the Journal; second, they took their product to the students during homeroom where they sold directly . . . on the basis of merit, not just "school spirit." The Journals fairly sang with pep and newsmanship. The reading public paid off, and the year's project was an all-around success. Best seller: the April Fool Cutie Journal, income from which broke a 30-year single copy sales record.

MEET THE ED! Sparking the staff's efforts for every issue of the Journal was Editor-in-Chief Sally Esler, who combined know-how with clear thinking and enthusiasm.

Ahh! Money... Sweet Music!

COUNTING the cash that resulted from direct sale of the Journal to homerooms are Bosson, Dunn, Cooper, Morneau, Wilkins, DeMente, and Hall.

Wanta Be A Journalist? All Right, Get Busy . . . !

ALMOST THE DAY you sign up for journalism, you go to work as a reporter. For you learn by doing in the Publications Department. Theory is a part of the program, sure; but sometimes you have to practice before you've come to the theory part of the lesson in the workbook! Nothing succeeds, though, like success. And when you see your story in print, or the picture you snapped, life really seems wonderful!

FOLDING PAPERS, salesmanship, chasing after ads, arranging for interviews, typing stories, running errands, answering the phone, straightening up the office . . . those are a few of the daily tasks. Come on in and go to work! Don't look for glamour in the Journal Office, for you won't find it. But you will find a dozen or more busy scribes on the job, intent on meeting the deadlines, criticising the last paper, or trying to improve on next issue.

NEWSBOYS and girls prepare Journals for distribution. Standing are Akin, Andrews, J. Palmer, Layne, R. Palmer, Wilky, Whittington, and Tang. Seated: Bearman, Basinger, Strickland, Simmons. The direct sales plan proved a financial bonanza.

Music Maids

EVERY EYE quickly focuses on these quick-stepping beauties when the band marches downfield during football half-time, or when a preliminary program highlights the sports evening. These well-trained Drum Majorettes add zing and zip, as well as curves and twinkling smiles to the evening's fun. In front are Cunningham and Holeman. Back: Westling, Strickland, Dixon, and Groessl.

Their Martial Music Had Special Zing . . .

BAND OFFICIALS study music to be used in annual concert. They are Boys' Band President Hood, Director Zorn, and Girls' Cocadette President Zapata.

SOMETHING WONDERFUL happened to Phoenix Union's bands when Mr. Harvey Zorn finally got his ideas to work. The 100-piece Concert Band and the 90-piece Cocadettes Band made music worthy of a university. People applauded while exclaiming, "They're wonderful . . . but how do they do it? In high school . . . just imagine!" Mr. Zorn and his professional-sounding musicians cut clever capers and brought forth magic music at parades and football games. Their Annual Band Concert in April was a musical highlight students still talk about.

CONCERT BAND and COCADETTES as they appeared during annual concert in the Auditorium. Group presidents were Ralph Hood and Alma Zapata; drum majors, Carl Ingram and Phyllis Groessl. Tiny Patricia Howell was mascot and drum majorette.

Everyone A Princess

PROCLAIMED the most queenly girls in Phoenix Union's student body were these lovelies. The seven pretty coeds were candidates for Princess in the annual Salad Bowl royalty competition. Final choice was Pat Finley. In the top row are pictured Cathy Carman, Joanne Lewis, Princess Pat, Betty Hoover, and Carol McElhaney. Seated: Alternate Princess Barbara Barr and Shelby Glotfelty.

Greetings!

MADRIGAL Singers vocalize on "Holy Night" during Christmas Season program. Front Row: Brown, Walker, Maple, Mayo, Cox. Back: Register, Detherow, Moreno, Brooks, Lloyd.

Choral Music To Please Every Listener

HOW DO YOU LIKE your music? Sweet, soft, jive-toned, solemn? Perhaps, like many, you prefer a variety . . . and that's what you got when you listened to A Cappella Choir programs. All who listened were pleased, because in the programs were musical numbers sure to entertain the majority. Assisting in the Follies and in making Christmas and Easter seasons more enjoyable, the choir was at all times co-operative and willing to entertain.

ALSO HELPING to provide enjoyable variety were the choir trio and newly formed quartet. Hard work and talent paid off, also for the newly organized Madrigal Singers, directed by Miss Kathleen Hergt. Beginning in September, the group practiced diligently and by Yuletide had reached a high point of perfection. Specializing on music of the 15th and 16th Centuries, and without accompaniment, the Madrigals sang for various organizations.

ORATORIO SOCIETY as it appeared for the singing of "Upon This Rock" during Easter Week. Director Rasbury is in center.

Their Blended Harmony Won Words Of Praise

WORK IS BYWORD of the Oratorio Society. Known as one of the most professional groups on campus since its organization in 1934, the Oratorio Society acts as a public relations link between the school and various civic groups. During the Easter season, however, the Oratorio Society takes on an added importance, for it is then that the performance of the annual oratorio is given.

THE SOCIETY WAS ESPECIALLY honored by being asked by Dr. Harry R. Wilson, choral director at Columbia University, to give the premiere of his new oratorio UPON THIS ROCK, based on episodes from the life of St. Peter. Included on the Easter program were excerpts from ELIJAH by Mendelssohn. The singers were further complimented when asked by the University of Arizona to sing at its annual festival for the fifth time. Well-known director of the group is Dr. Milton K. Rasbury.

Carols, For Us At Christmas

CHRISTMAS Assembly music was provided by Oratorio. Speaker for the annual event was The Rev. Dr. Hall.

All In Tune . . . Ready, On Key, Now, Downbeat!

NEW TRIUMPH came to the Orchestra with job done at All-School Follies. Here Director Lombardi conducts overture.

A CRESCENDO OF APPLAUSE and praise greets this fast-growing organization wherever and whenever it performs. It has a quality and richness that characterizes only one group — the Concert Orchestra. Directed by Mr. Eugene Lombardi, the talented musicians have played their way through a year of programs and assemblies. For the first time a select group from the Orchestra played the background music (composed by Mr. Lombardi) for the All-School Follies.

THEIR ANNUAL spring concert, done jointly with the A Cappella Choir, and a double assembly highlighted the Concert Orchestra's activities. Everything from popular to classical music was played with such verve and versatility as to prove that this is one of the most promising music organizations at Phoenix Union. Here, students' work is actually play!

WITH ALL THE precision of professionals, the Pom-Pon Girls provided entertainment at sports events. Posing for the camera are (back row) Moncrief, Morrison, Lewis, and B. Wright. Front row: Lawson, Sperger, Amador, and S. Wright. Chosen for their personality, beauty, and dancing ability, Phoenix Union's Pom-Pons are an example of school spirit in action. They dance at all football games, participate in the Follies, perform at basketball games, and this year they cooked up a routine for the Frontier Dance. Their precise dance steps are a result of constant practice. No wonder they are rated among the best in the state!

Coyote Pep Was Never Lacking!

WHAT'LL YOU HAVE? Nothing the TV advertisers could offer compares to Coyote Pep assemblies . . . ! That ol' gang spirit . . . the yells, the laughs. There's something electric about Coyote Spirit . . . we thrill and chill with excitement . . . the kind of thrill we feel when the team runs out on the field and we jump and holler until Downtown Phoenix can hear the commotion . . .

ASSEMBLIES GALORE . . . That's what the entertainment committee offers the student body. Whether it is to be held in the Boys' Gym, the Stadium, or in the Auditorium.

PEP, MUSICAL, dramatic, educational, graduation, or even a religious assembly, are all brought to us for one reason . . . the entertainment of the student body. Moreover, we've shown that we appreciate everything.

Friendly Competition IN SPITE OF THE ROUSING

speeches and blood-curdling threats against the up-coming enemy on the gridiron or basketball floor, the end result of our competition with other schools was always pleasant . . . win or lose. We have learned the value of good sportsmanship. And even though all of us can't be "good losers" when the other side piles up the bigger score, we do claim that we can concede defeat graciously. Or, in winning, we try not to rub it in. Friendship is a valuable commodity in our community.

OTHER VALLEY SCHOOLS, realizing the benefits of good sportsmanship, back the idea 100 per cent. Even the alumni, often the hot-headed element, are following the lead of their fair-dealing young friends.

GREETING, AMIGOS! The Phoenix Union Band spells out our friendly feelings for the honorable opponents of the evening.

Hey, Rube! Circus Follies Was Fast-Moving, Clever

HURRY! HURRY! THE CIRCUS is here! Never has there been an All-School Follies so full of noise, nonsense, and downright fun! The cast's version of "Hey, Rube!" proved fast-moving, boisterous, and so full of zip that few could find fault.

DEPICTING A SIMPLE country lad determined to crash to circus stardom, "Hey, Rube!" had everything . . . juggling, trapeze acts, harem dancers, singing, instrumentalists. General Director Jacquot was assisted by Mr. Barney Shepard and Jeanne Fox.

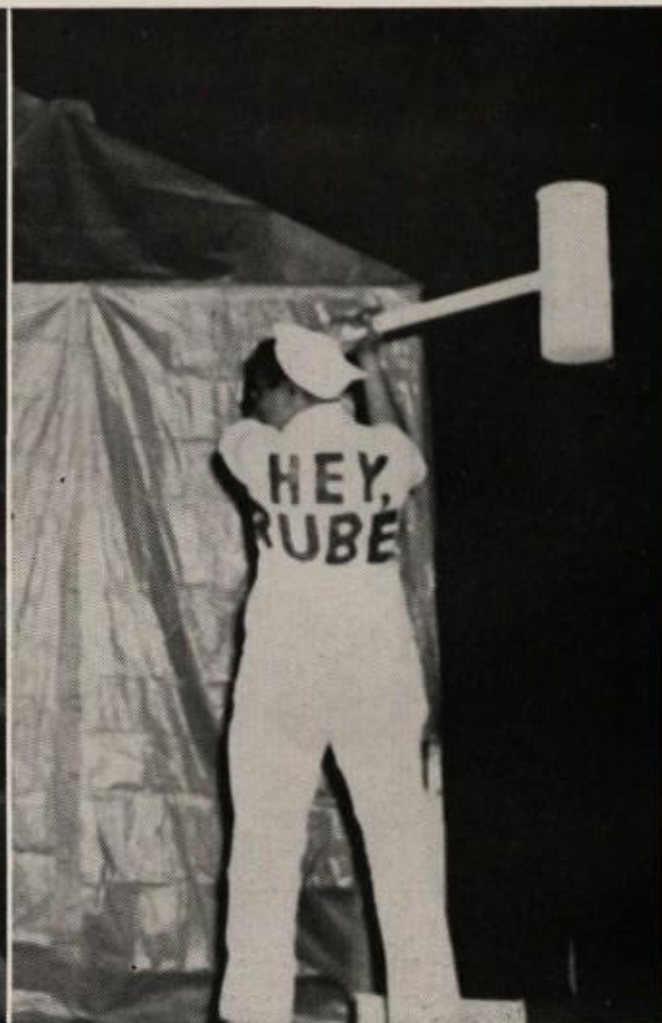

ALWAYS A FINANCIAL success as well as representative of the school's top talent, the All-School Follies has a remarkable history. The follies began first as a Girls' League production, then grew to a double-header when the Boys' Federation came out with a burlesque of the girls' extravaganza. Finally, the Productions merged, to offer a varied, fast-moving show playing to packed houses.

BARKER Lloyd on the job.

OOMPAH! OOMPAH! Down the aisles came the circus band to herald the opening of All-School Follies. Shown are Aldrich, Lawson, Finnell, Torre. Right: Stagehand helps to erect tent while advertising show's name. Hey, Rube! action was fast, continuous.

Follies Frolic:

Success... After Long Hours Of Practice

NOW ABOUT that makeup? . . . Director Jacquot consults with co-workers Shepard and Fox while watching an act during rehearsal of "Hey, Rube!" Cast practised long hours, strove vigorously for perfection. Nobody could complain at the final results . . . especially the patrons!

AN OLD HAND AT DRAMA productions, Mr. Jacquot took over his new job as Follies director with a contagious zest that soon had cast members as well as the crew enthusiastic about the musical comedy themed "Hey, Rube!" Providing the music was a 34 member student orchestra directed by Mr. Eugene Lombardi. Newspaper critics as well as Follies goers praised the superb job that the orchestra did in accompanying the entire show.

THROUGH THE AIR . . . with greatest of ease and a large amount of skill flew these acrobatic actors in All-School Follies. Featured in black lightning, the act featured Dewitt and Jackson on the trampoline. Fox and Glotfelty were on the swing ropes. Circus audience in background provided color, holiday atmosphere to the production. Only thing lacking was sawdust ring!

Mad Murderers On The Loose

I'LL TAKE THAT! This scene from "Shop at Sly Corners" depicts thief, played by James Lloyd, receiving money from fence Phil Ewart.

THIS IS KILLIN' ME! Murder was in style in "Shop at Sly Corners." On floor is Eddie Caldwell getting his from Sharron Hill; in box, Janette Huffmaster, attacked by Bill Bradford and witnessed by Andy Limber; shooting Director C. B. Shepard is Carolyn Chudley; strangling Jerry Register is Phil Ewart and cheerfully looking on are innocent bystanders James Lloyd and Sandra Matlock.

That Glorified Brat

Return Of A Hero

LESSON LEARNED! Father Duane Witham, seems to be in pain as he gives his daughter, Louise Seymour, her just retribution in "The Glorified Brat."

STUDENT BODY PLEASURE was evident when Masque and Gavel presented two one-act plays in regular assemblies. Students roared at the humorous scenes in both of the plays directed by Mr. Willard Jacquot. "The Glorified Brat" centered around a spoiled young daughter of a blind widower, who adored his daughter. The father, however, was blind in other ways, too, until his new wife, played by Janette Dooley, exposed the "glorified brat."

A MELODRAMA, "The Return of the Hero," portrayed a girl who was more than aggressive in pursuing her man although he knew nothing about it. Old fashioned costumes and overly-stiff dignity added to the hilarity of the comedy. Mr. Jacquot was faculty director.

"ITS ALL OVER NOW!" sobs Roberta Haworth as her dream lover, LeRoy Baker, prepares to slip out. Holding her hand is her younger sister, Mary Jean Shobe, as her mother, Dorothy Ann Parsons, tries in vain to effect a reconciliation.

My Little Margie

A PERT AND VIVACIOUS Margie entertained Phoenixians when the Senior Class presented the All-School-Play, "My Little Margie" on March 26. Upper left, nurse Mary Wood ignores a typewriter challenge by persistent Peter Gulatto, the bellboy. Upper Right: Shhhhh! While the assassin, Jerry Hancock, cases the joint, turban-topped Andy Limber seems to connive in the sinister plot. Below: Most of the cast gathers, with Jeanne Fox (Margie) playing up to her dad, Harold Leuba, and her mother, Audrey Brown. At right, the nurse feels Limber's pulse while he relates his harrowing experiences to Jeanette Dooley and Al Bearden.

Mr. Chairman . . . Fellow Students, Friends . . .

ROTARY SPEECH Contestant Wynn Southwick presents a strong case against those who preach, "Do as I say, not as I do!" In background are judges and contestants.

SPEECH CONTESTS AROUSE much interest among students. The school annually enters strong contestants for the American Legion's national contest on the U. S. Constitution and for the Phoenix Rotary Speech Contest. Hundreds of Phoenixians prepare speeches and a round-robin of eliminations selective preliminaries starting in the English classrooms winds up with finalists to compete first for school, then city, and finally regional honors. Marshall Gollub won in the Constitution competition, and Wynn Southwick in the Rotary Club finals. City Rotary speech finals were held at PUHS this year.

EASTER PROGRAM music was provided this year by A Cappella, directed by Miss Sue Davis. Here the group is shown behind a mesh curtain and a beautifully ornamented cross decorated in silver, with silver lilies in the foreground. Program was enjoyed by all.

Your Pep! Your Pep!
You've Got It . . .
Don't Lose It . . . !

WHEN THE CALL CAME to give a cheer, Phoenixians responded in the time-honored fashion. They made the windows rattle with their uproar. It might have helped had our teams been consistent winners . . . powerhouse athletes bowling over all and sundry opposition . . . but that happy state of affairs is usually remote, and this year 1953-54 proved to be no exception.

BUT THE COYOTES did have something in its brand of cheerleaders. From Bouncy Betty Hoover to the smallest yipper on the squad they reflected enthusiasm and the will to win no matter what the score or the prospects of a victory.

CREDIT THE STUDENT crowd with enthusiasm, too; they followed Betty's lead and backed their teams to the final gun. Their good sportsmanship meant a victory everytime, no matter which of the teams won the game. Such a wholesome attitude helped win games, too!

Twirp Season! THE WOMAN was requested to pay . . . but Lee (upper left) winced at Bosson's demand for more pie. Right: Barnett winds up holding books for McCarty while signing his Twirp Tag. Below: King for the Day is Tuttle, overwhelmed by attentions from Esler, Hoover, and Lewis.

PLANNERS for Midnight and Roses Ball, "Soir de Paris", or Evening In Paris, are Lorna Waddell and Margie Millam.

There's The Music... Come, Let's Dance!

WHEN HEARTS ARE GAY . . . and music is soft and low, romance has its innings! Two of the outstanding social events of the year were Midnight and Roses Ball, featuring "Evening in Paris", and the annual Sweetheart Ball, theme of which was "Way Back When."

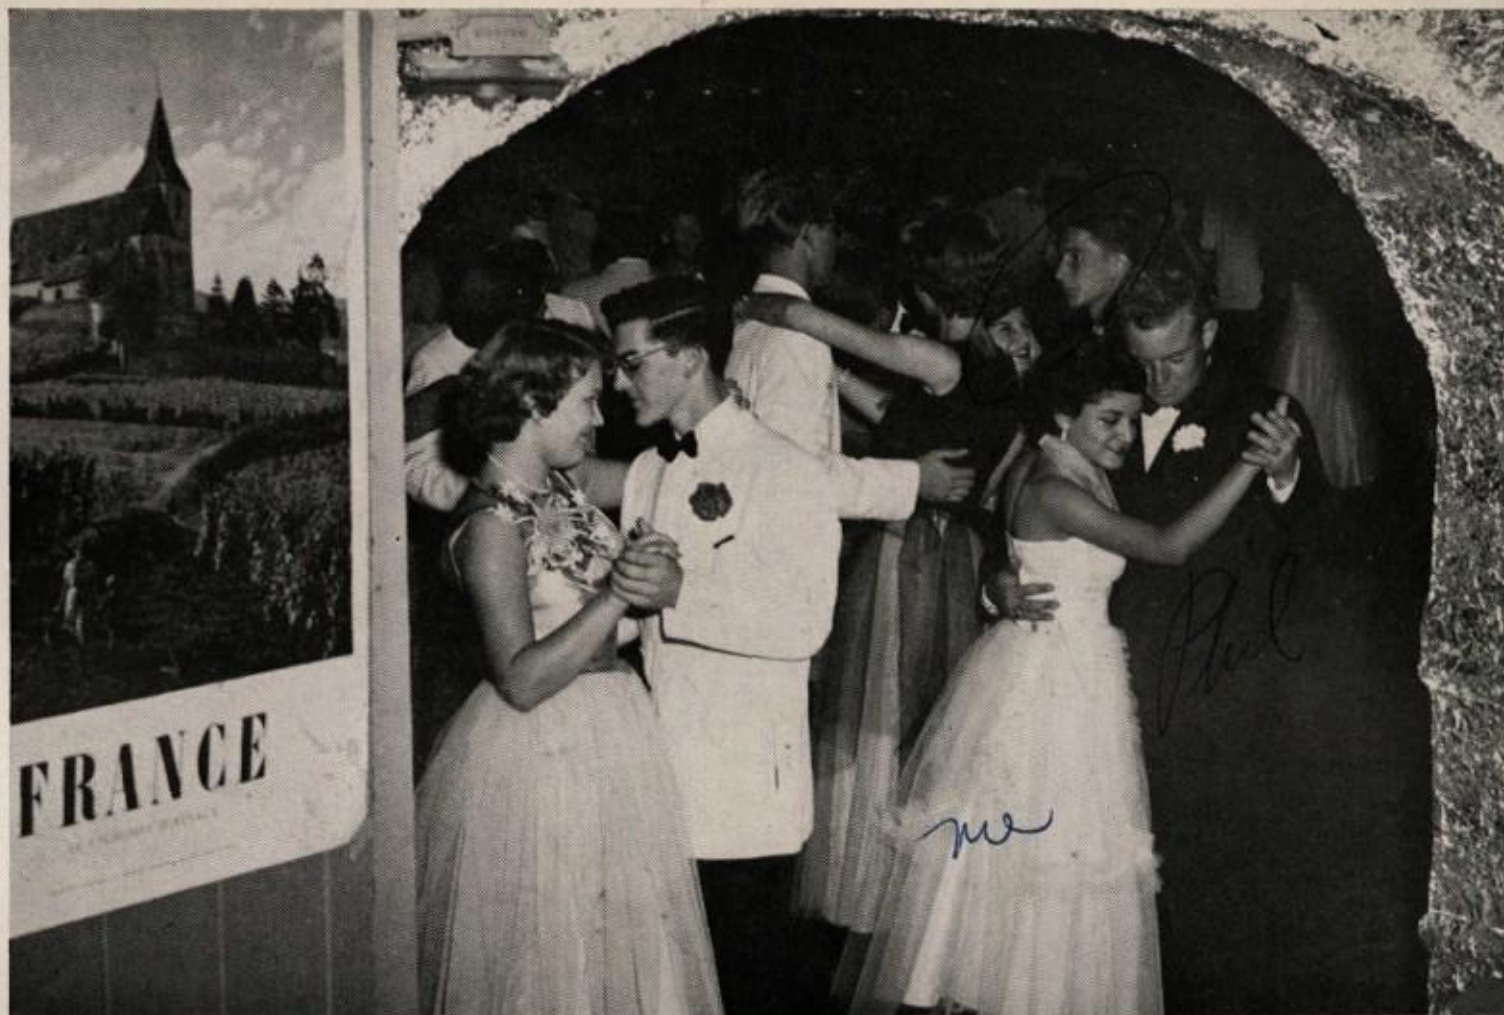

WITH THE BIG Gymnasium appropriately decorated, both dances were wonderful to remember. Girls' League sponsored the Midnight and Roses; Junior Council engineered the April 24 Sweetheart Ball. Both were girl-date-boy events.

LET ME CALL YOU SWEETHEART! Here are two scenes from the annual Sweetheart Ball, this year planned around the theme, "Way Back When." At right, Chuck Lindemulder and his date, Helen Cunningham, sample the punch during an intermission.

Roses . . . A Paris Evening

ROMANCE enveloped all who entered this portal at the annual Midnight and Roses Ball, theme of which was "An Evening In Paris." Section of the large crowd is pictured from balcony . . . having a grand time!

UP, UP IN the sky goes Cheerleader Ralph Evans during Color Day Rally in the Boys' Gymnasium.

Do You Remember? Happy Memories Last

SCHOOL DAYS WOULD be dull days indeed were it not for the salt and salad of pep rallies, follies, and kindred events added to the meat, potatoes and gravy of class routines. Now, don't get the idea that many make a hash of their school life! But the corny old saying that all work and no play makes Jack sorta' stupid still holds true in many cases.

WHAT SHALL WE REMEMBER most of high school experiences? Ask Mom and Pop sometime! They'll recall a few classroom incidents; maybe a kindly teacher or a particularly rough exam will come to mind. But they'll remember every outstanding dance; they'll happily reminisce about the time the Coyotes wopped the state champs, coming from behind to win . . . just like the movies. Yes, we'll remember . . . plenty. And most of it pleasant . . .

How We Danced . . . And Sang And Hollered!

JUST CLOWNIN' are these dancers from the All-School Follies. On floor, foreground, are Waddell, McFarland, and Sanchez. Center Row: Jones, Treadwell, Anderson, Nakamura. Back Row:

Severens, McCorkle, Tussey, Penrod, and Harrington. Dance was directed by Miss Blake. This picture was submitted for use in a national magazine devoted to physical education for girls.

THERE GOES ANOTHER basket! Heads turn automatically as action sends the basketball from one end of the court to another.

Here is a section of the crowd at the opening of the 1953-54 hoop season, an assembly game against Prescott. Coyotes won handily.

Make That Basket! Phoenix! Rah! Rah!

EXCITEMENT STAYS at fever pitch while the issue is in doubt at basketball games. Nothing can get the blood pressure higher than a tie-score, with only minutes to go until the final gun. No wonder Coyote sports are so well patronized . . . with so much loud enthusiasm! Nothing equals the bloodtingling thrill as agile athletes race about, flicking the ball to each other . . . then with a swoosh into the basket for another score.

WITH ONE OF THE largest and most beautiful gymnasiums in the country, Phoenix Union sports fans get a head-start on less fortunate student bodies when it comes to enjoying basketball. At other times, the polished floor is the scene of stag-or-drag sport dances and numerous formal balls during year.

Nana! Will this is the last year we had to raise all sorts of - - and I think that we did our share. If you sure have been a lot of fun to be with and I'll never forget our trip to the U. and our getting caught doing something we didn't supposed to do. I hope I see a Scitres watch to see if their mascot pooch will take to a drink of hypo juice. He declined, with thanks. The club made and sold attractive Christmas cards as one of many group projects.

Hi-Y and Handsome ♦ ♦ ♦

SENIOR HI-Y is one of the most active clubs on the campus. This year they sponsored the Annual Hi-Y Governor's Ball, participated in the model legislature at the state capitol, and raised money to sponsor a scholarship for a member of the club. President was Ralph Caldwell. Mr. J. J. Wagoner served as club sponsor. Assembled to represent club's symbol, Hi-Y members are (Back Row) Fussell, Escoto, Contreras, Berry, Lindemulder, Lorber, Spencer, Beutler and Tabor. Left Row: Zorbas, Duffy, Kopy, Montgomery, Sanchez, Gilbert and Carbajal. Right: Sunshine, Millam, Plock, Keith, Manning, S. Mitchell, McMaken, and Harrington. Cross (from top) Nunez, Caldwell, Goldfarb, and T. Mitchell. Cross (left to right): Shaw, Berlemann, Hulen, and Fotinos. Sponsor Wagoner is seen in background.

AUDITORIUM CLUB, as usual, did an excellent job ushering for concerts, shows, and other entertainment. A switch from their usual chic costumes were equally chic clown outfits used for the Follies. Pictured in the Auditorium, some in the clown suits, are Back Row: Owens, May, Zapata, Fredrick, Olson, Fekete, Segovia,

Reed, Given, Martinez, Tang. Row 3: Fung, Carrera, Arnold, Barnes, Hufford, Gotch, Westling, Thompson, Haines, McClung, Baker. Row 2: Bell, Weigen, McCayne, Kimes, Williams, Hospodka, Gaither, Emery, Marsh, Smith. Front Row: McInturff, Neuer, Bell, Matlock, Wheeler, Hamilton, Howe, Estrada, Poole.

Their Constant Aim: To Please The Public

Alert, On The Job

ACTIVE WAS THE WORD for the Student Health Committee this year. Their pet project: The Free Milk Festival in which 3,000 half-pints of the vitamin-packed liquid trickled cost-free down Phoenixians' throats and $50 in prizes as well as free lunches went to prize slogan composers. During the sniff 'n sneeze season the committee displayed posters and warnings to watch out for infection.

NOT LEAST OF THEIR participation was the assistance members gave the school nurses at the Health Center. This group symbolized the keen interest every student felt in maintaining better health. Prevention now is infinitely better than a cure later on!

Worthy Of The Spotlight—

FOUR ASSEMBLIES, two for Phoenix Union and two for South High, were the biggest undertakings of the Spotlighters Club this year. Under the leadership of co-presidents Charles Allen and Ron Voelker, and sponsored by Kathryn Munson, the club also held weekly meeting to discuss plans for future activities. The end of the year was topped off by a dinner and swimming.

NAMED OUTSTANDING among Phoenix Union's senior boys are the Shield Club members. Strictly honorary, the club welcomes into the exclusive membership those who have excelled in citizenship. The handsome gold pin awarded each fellow was a small expression of thanks from student body and faculty for the boys' contribution to Phoenix Union High School.

Reckless Rollers . . . For Fun On Skates

SEE! WE'RE NOT really a lion! Say S. Bradford and Grimm to the relief of B. Bradford, Reuter, and Miller. This group staged roller skating act in All-School Follies.

Let's Get Rolling!

ONE GOOD WHIRL deserves another . . . and the Reckless Rollers are off for another fun-spin at the Rollerdrome! Liveliest of the campus groups, from the standpoint of athletic activity, the Reckless Rollers schedule frequent skating sessions in addition to social gatherings. Membership is open to any Phoenix Union High student. Only requirement is that he be a good sport and enjoy rolling about on ballbearing wheels. Kenneth Beals is faculty sponsor.

To Grow In Friendship:

TRI-Y-TEEN CLUBS are branches of the YWCA and include chapters in most of the city's high schools. Tri-Y goals are indeed worthy: To grow as a person; to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities; to grow in the knowledge and love of God.

MAJOR PURPOSE of the clubs is to aid in the development of leadership, friendliness, appreciation of others, of work, of art, and of religion, and service to others. Charitable projects and numerous social functions highlight their school year; but satisfaction they gain from service to others remains the girls' keenest reward, Sponsor Mildred Neely believes.

TRI-Y TEENS—Bottom Row: Miss Roof, D. Schaldach, J. Bushnell, Evans, Haworth, Arnson, Frane, B. Bower, Mrs. Neely. Row 2: Eubanks, Garrison, J. McClaskey, L. McClaskey, Baslow, Moodey, Weigen, Kimes, Fung, Romero. Row 3: R. Sanchez, J. Osburn, Barnett, Jenkins, Gotch, Arzberger, Myers, Lozier, Tatum, Peet, Snook. Club has an even more active year planned for 1954-55.

B-SHARP CLUB: Bottom Row: Sturm, McDonald, Pappas, Mortenson, Mr. Lombardi, Jordan. Row 2: Tuttle, Zapata, Smith, Culley, Peck, D. Olsen, Wolf, Miss Davis. Row 3: Hamby, Marringer, Golden, Fredrick, Maurer, Szabo, Storm, I. Dang, S. Dang. Top

Row: Hughes, Emery, Kirk, Spain, Thompson, Westling, Anderson, Turner, Strickland, Squire, Miller, Wallis, Jett. B-Sharp's activities included several musical programs, platter sessions, and visiting artists who sparked the club toward higher goals, musically.

Come On . . . Let's Argue!

DISCUSSION CLUB: While George Washington, background, holds aloof, loud noises from the foreground group indicate all is not settled on the current news front. STANDING: Falck, McDermott, Mogerman, Shepard, Weiss, Hartwich, Enochs, Belman. SEATED: Anderson, Collins, Sheller, Turner, Mrs. Munson, group sponsor.

It's All For Fun! ALTHOUGH A GOOD MANY of Phoenix Union's clubs are based on classroom interests and activity, none fit the need for self-expression better than Masque and Gavel or Quill and Scroll. The first group, organized to encourage participation in public speaking and dramatics, gives members a hilarious outlet for their stagecraft and forensics. Quill and Scroll members meet every day in the Journal Office to cook up publicity for the school or help on the Phoenician Annual. The club is honorary.

QUILL & SCROLL: President Goldfarb presents Time Magazine's annual award to Adeline Ong for her excellence in current events contest. Others in front row are Pace, McIntyre, Esler, LAS ESTRELLITAS, a most active club, this year sponsored many of the dances for the student body. They have interests which extend into many fields. They had many candy sales, which have netted them a large profit. Such money is used in many ways to improve the club for future years. President was Carmen Perez.

LAS ESTRELLITAS Club members show they can smile! Seated are Varela, R. Perez, Sanchez, Dolly Melendez, C. Perez, Salazar, Torres, Fernandez, Ramirez, Dora Melendez. Standing: Puente, PARLEZ-VOUS francais? Comment? Mais, oui, mon ami . . . C'est si bon! French is where you find it . . . in this case, right on the campus. There are literally no "squares" in Le Cercle Francais! One of the school's most active groups, Le Cercle sponsors numerous activities, enjoys frequent get-togethers.

IN ADDITION, these filles et garcons do a good job of building friendship for the people of foreign lands. To join the club, one must have a semester of French and be prepared to wear a beret on moment's notice! Amiable sponsor of Le Cercle Francais is Mrs. Hazel Redewill, French instructor.

Still Lifers

Artists Easily Express Themselves

ARTISTRY TAKES MANY forms: in Nature's colors, motions, and music; in industry, in everyday life. But a small core of artists who work with grease pencils and paints has started what may develop into a very popular organization. The Art Club, open to any interested student, is sponsored by Mr. Monroe. Its membership is expected to grow in 1954-55.

RADIO HAMS HAVE developed many new interests lately. The amateur hobbyists of the airways have enjoyed exciting field trips, numerous movies, adventures in electronics. Visits to radio and TV stations and to various air fields sparked the club's busy year. Officers were Mike Reilly, president; Walter Wong, vice-president; Larry Howarth, secretary, and Don Lemons, sergeant-at-arms. Visitors are always welcomed to any meeting of the club.

Mind Your Manners!

NO MATTER HOW much you study, theory can't substitute for actual practice in the learning process, many teachers believe. It's true of Mrs. Wyman's class in Human Relations, too . . . after a field trip to a downtown restaurant, where the members practiced table manners during a full course dinner. But a look at the pictures above will convince anyone that students like to cut capers whenever there's a camera around to make a record of the miscellaneous antics!

In service there is real pleasure. Nothing could be more boring than that feeling of uselessness. It's a situation never really faced by members of Friendship and SOS Clubs, whose worthy projects keep members hopping all year long. Hopping . . . and, as you may well believe, always happy!

They're Planning Now For Future Success

"THE FUTURE BELONGS to those who prepare for it" could well describe reasons for membership in Future Business Leaders, one of the most active and worthwhile groups on campus. Besides getting firsthand know-how from top business people, members of the club take various field trips during the year and thus acquire some knowledge of business procedures before entering the highly competitive business field.

BUSINESS STUDENTS obviously agree that belonging to the organization is very much worth their while, because club membership this year has practically doubled. Instructors in business education are delighted with the interest shown in FBLA. It's a good sign that students are concerned seriously with their future places in the workaday world. Club sponsors are Mr. Cox and Miss Poteet, who have complete confidence in the FBLA aims.

Every Single Foe Got A Battle

A STRONG PHOENIX Union defensive unit held Don Coyote's 1953 football foes to 109 points in 10 gridiron tilts, while the Pack's offense gained 94 points operating from a single-wing attack directed by Mentors Sam Winningham and Martin Marich.

IN THE OPENER, the Pack held Yuma to seven markers while Roy Harrington and Vic Sanchez each scored six for a 12-7 Phoenix Union win.

AN UNUSUAL PLAY was turned in when Harrington momentarily fumbled, recovered, and lateralled to Bob Hall who heaved a 40-yard pass to End Ron Montgomery in Criminal territory. Phoenix felt the need of an extra point as St. Mary's tripped the Coyotes 7-6. Bob Hall kept the Pack alive when he made his way around end into scoring territory, but the point after touchdown failed . . . as it was for at least the next three games. We couldn't seem to kick between those goalposts!

Redlands Toughies Feel Pack's Punch

A STRONG PUHS line barrier made a highly-regarded Redlands, California eleven hold its scoring to 14-12. All-State Tackle Bill Lairson, John Tabor, Ray Hall, Ralph Caldwell, Ted Mitchell, Jerry Milam, Tom Hulen, and Urban Porterie starred for the Pack defensively. Halfback Rudy Ayala made his way into checkered territory following hard hitting Vic Sanchez' 30-yard drive.

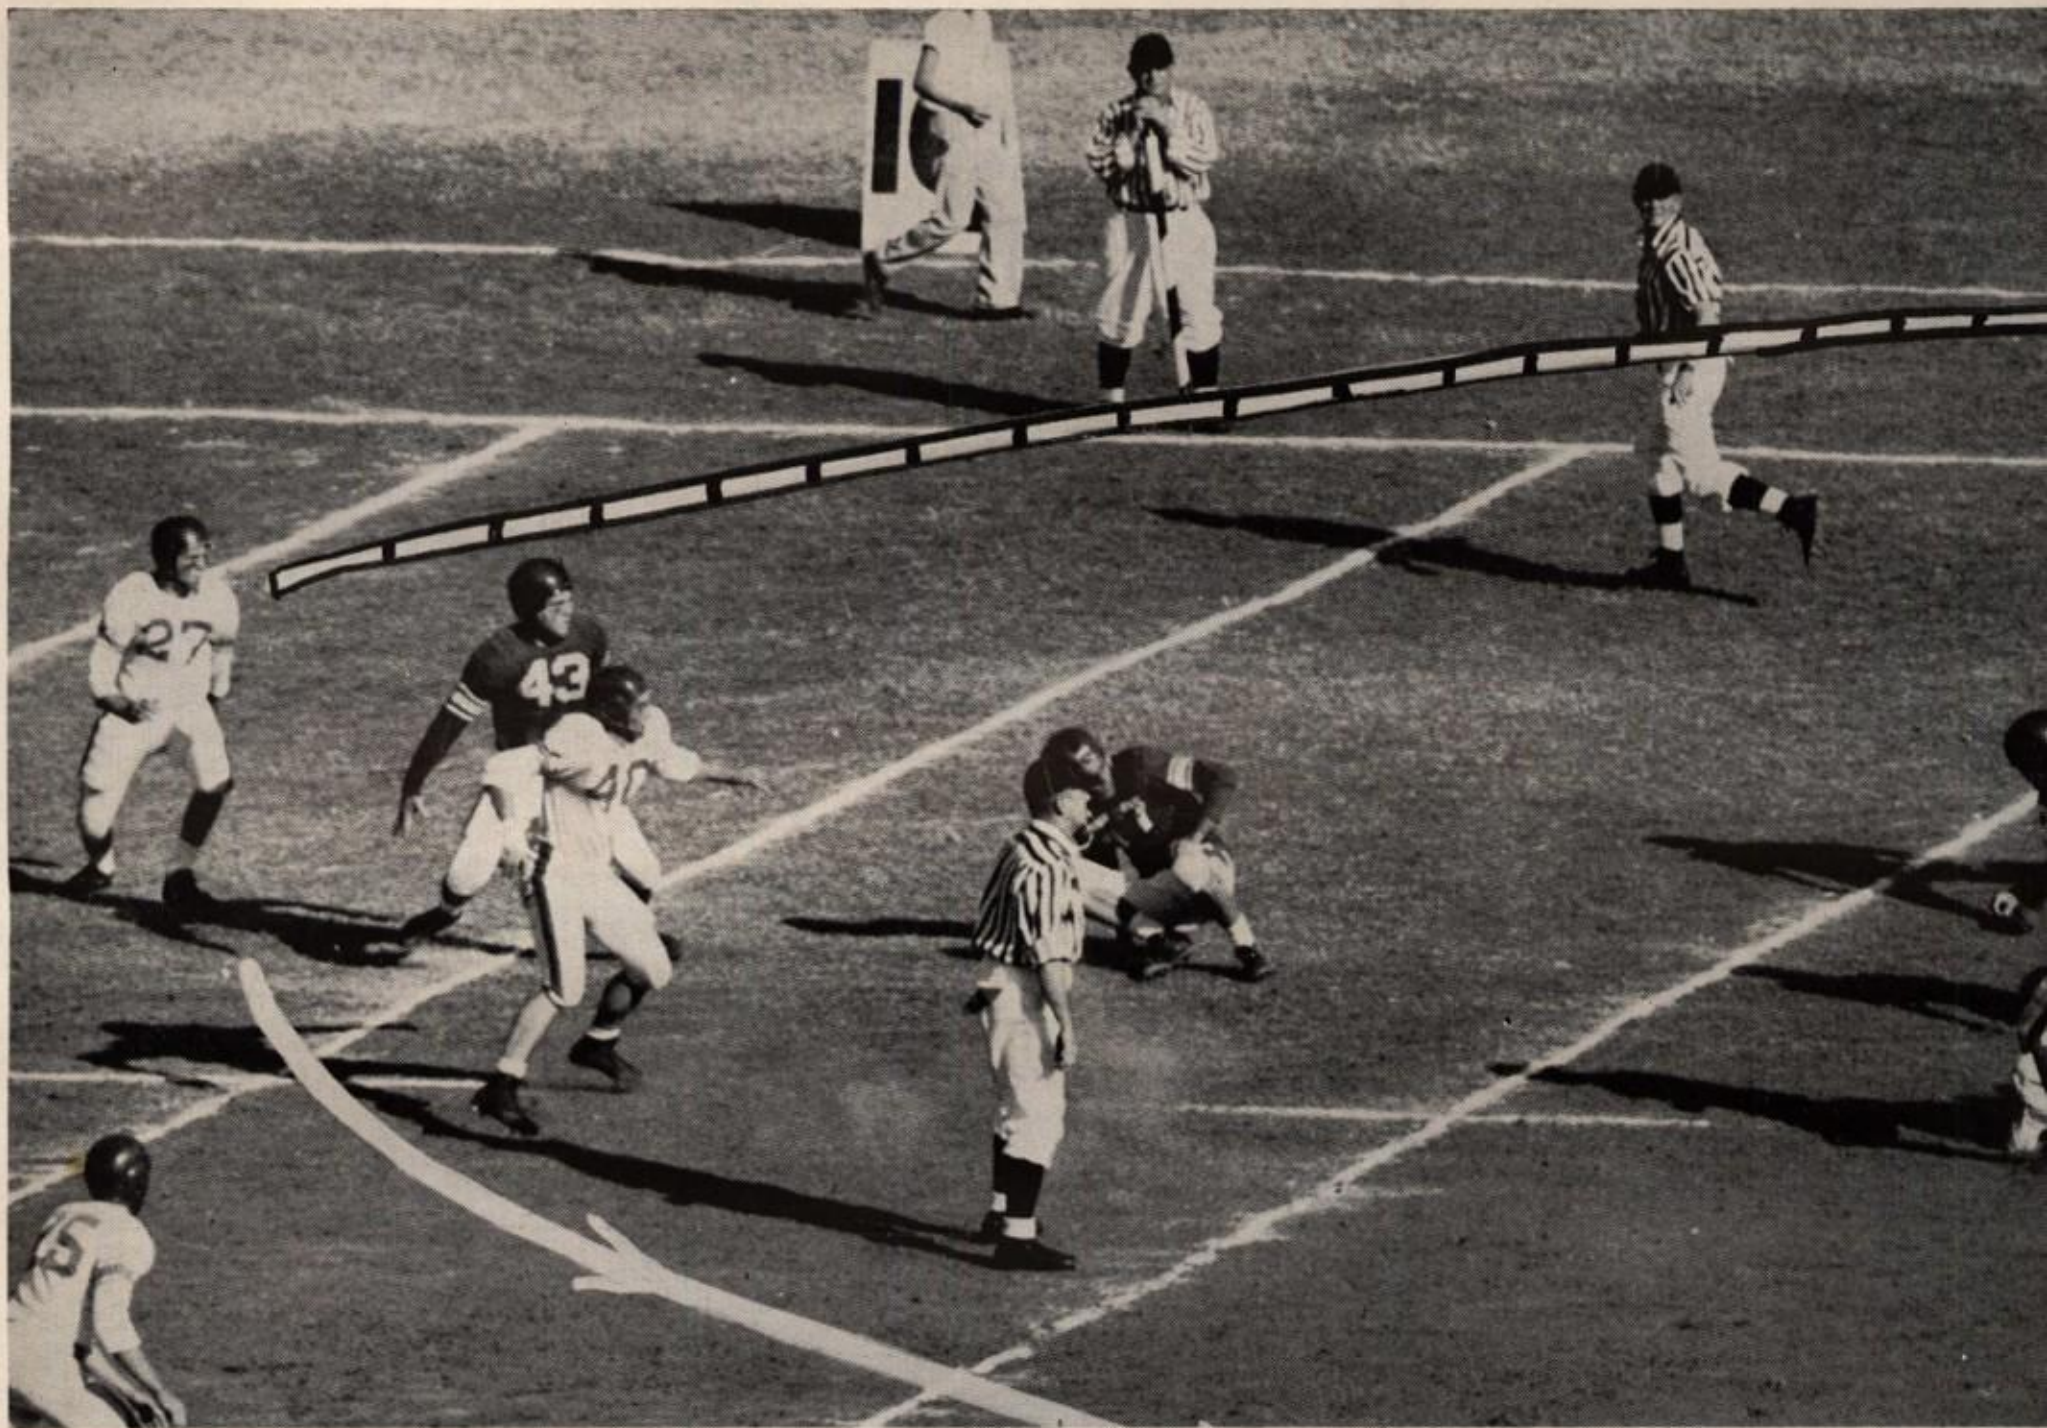

SHERMAN GILE and Sanchez paired up to lead the Coyotes in an impressive 12-0 score over Bakersfield, California. Guard Jim Ryan proved valuable as he cleared the way for Bob Hall around the Pack's right end, tallying up the first TD. Union and Tech matched single-wing formations, but Coyote defense dumped the ailing Hornets 26-13. Tailback Bob Hall gained offensive honors while Cecil Wariner and Jim Jarnagin held the Pack's line together.

MADE IT! Gile crosses the goal line ahead of Bakersfield's Bedford and Jackson.

RHINEHART cuts his way through several West High players to score in the Coyotes' 20-0 city victory. Coming to Rhinehart's aid are No. 41 Caldwell, No. 47 Hall, and No. 37 Sanchez.

HERE IT COMES! Bob Hall heaves a 20-yard aerial to End Ron Montgomery (43), but fails to connect as North's Mustangs surround his target. Others identifiable are Ralph Caldwell (41), Vic Sanchez (37), Jim Jarnigan (30), Tom Hulen (28), Ted Mitchell (21), and falling Sherman Gile (57).

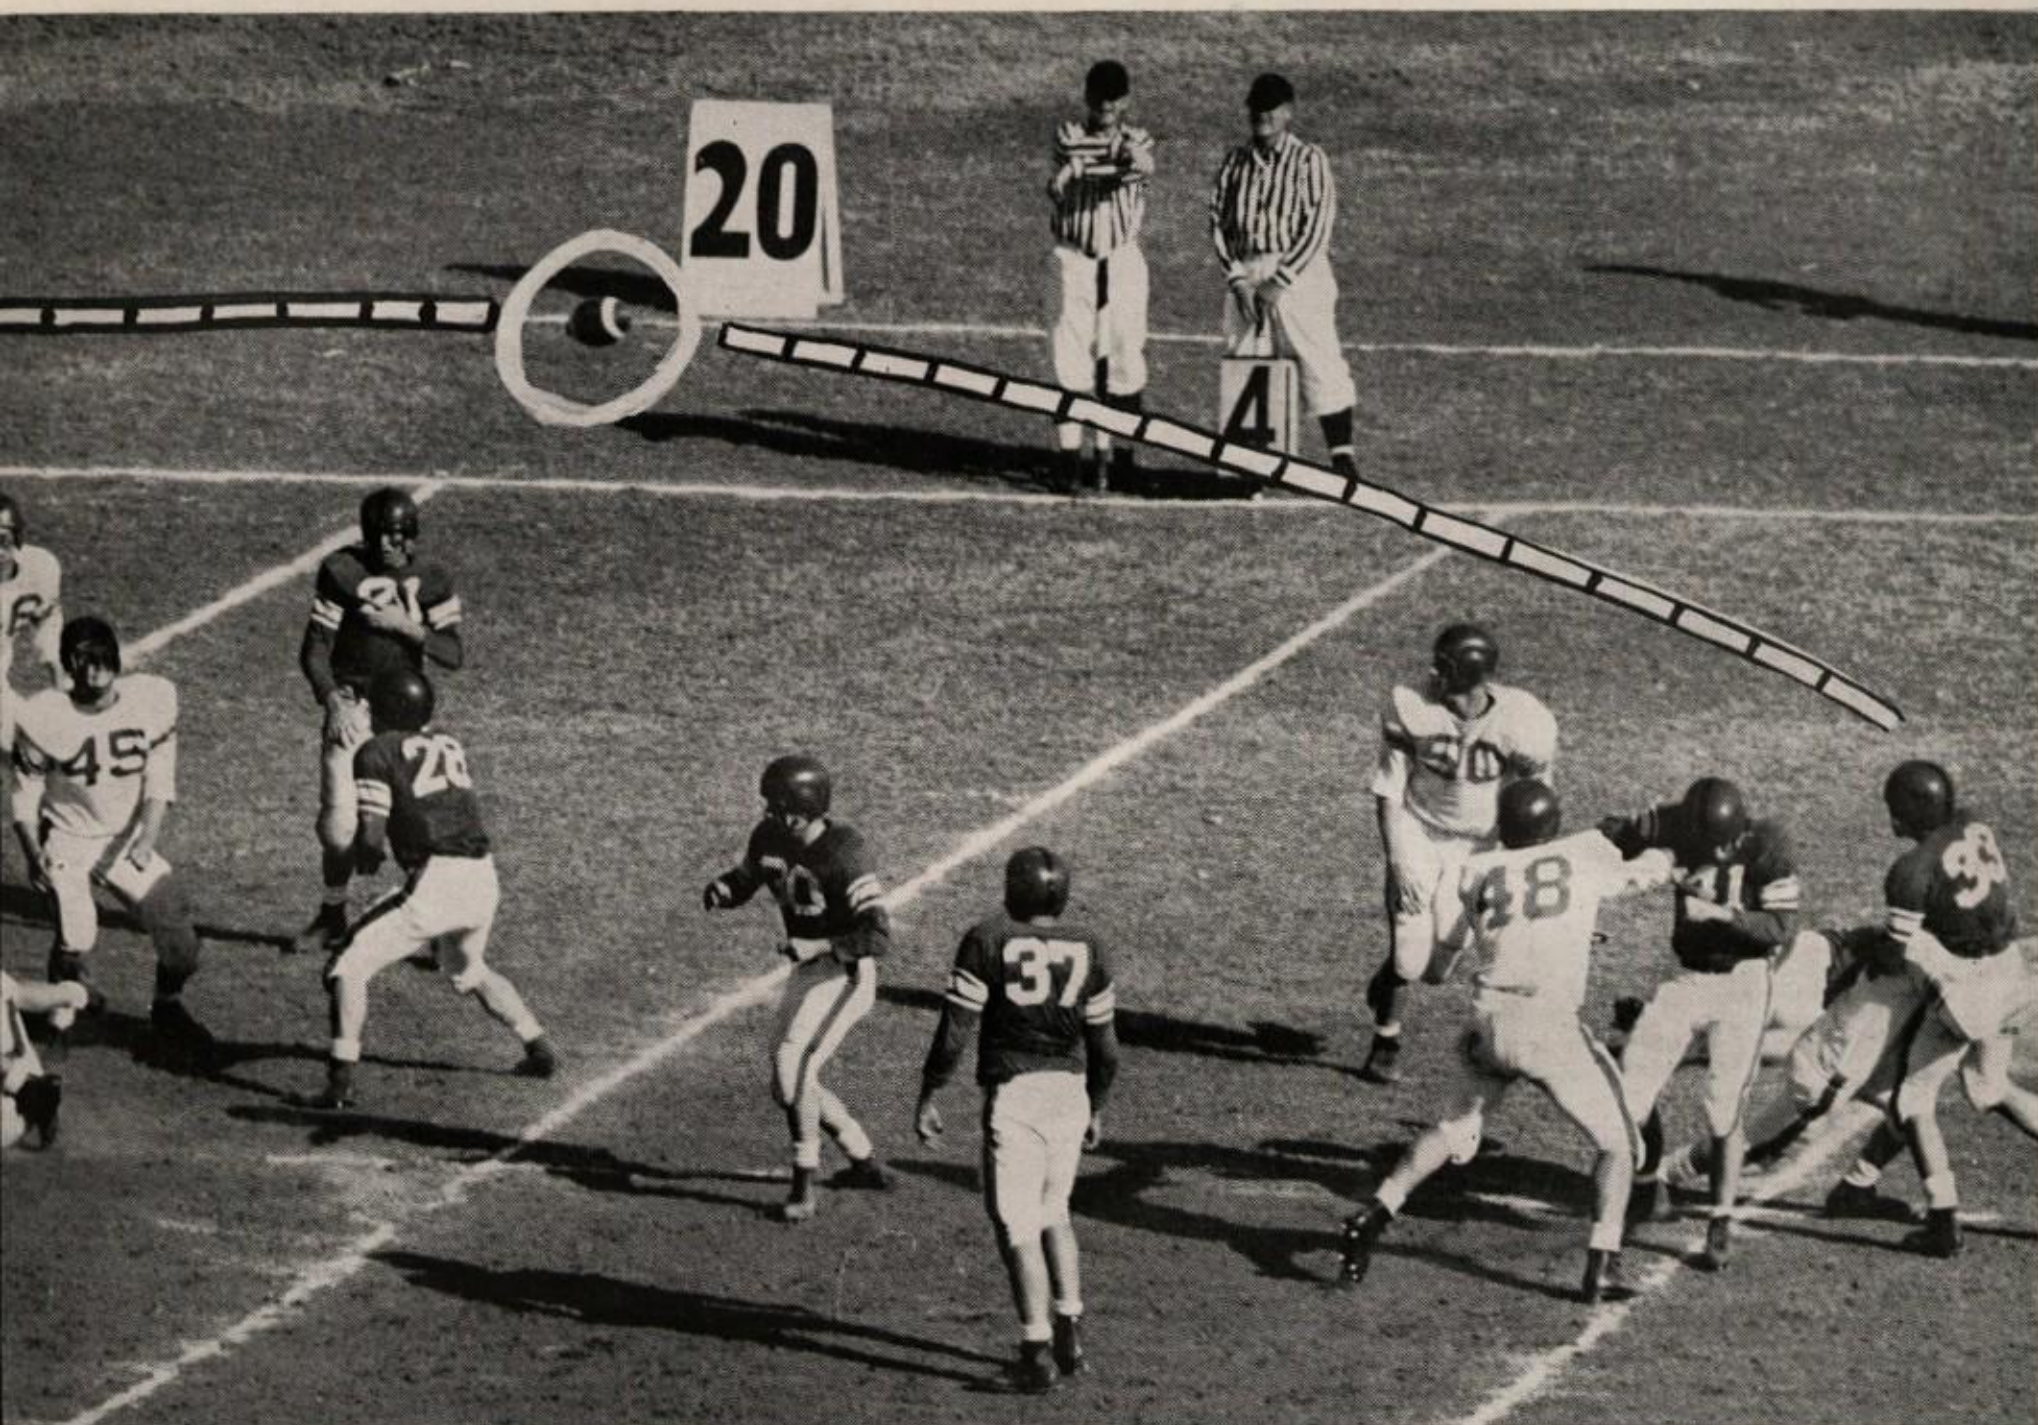

Again Tucson's Jinx Takes Hold . . .

OUTSCORED AND OUTGAINED, Don Coyote saw Tucson run away with a 14-0 Class A gridiron victory before a crowd of 6,000 Old Pueblo fans. Twice within 10 yards of scoring, PUHS fumbled and lost its chance to break Tucson's jinx over Phoenix Union. Vic Sanchez led the Red and Black team both in offense and defense.

Mesa's Jackrabbits went wild in handing the Pack a 27-0 pasting. Sterling Bonner kept breaking through the Coyote's line for the 6-pointers.

PHOENIX UNION HAD consolation in Bob Hall's consistent running gains which were halted within sight of the goal line.

Coyote backfield members the following week, clicked beautifully. They completely humiliated West High's efforts in a 20-0 win as a solid PUHS line held the Thunderbirds under control. Pack contributors George Zorbas and Danny Rhinehart accounted for two of Union's TD's. Other aiders were Jerry Garrison, Ted Mitchell, and Urban Porterie.

(ARIZONA REPUBLIC TELEPHOTO)

RHINEHART DRIVES hard into North's Aycock and Prock while End Warriner attempts to block 'em off. North won the Turkey Game 14-0.

North Wins, 14-0

AN ALERT DEFENSE characterized the Red and Black team in holding the winning Badgers from Tucson to a 13-6 count in their second encounter. Substitute Quarterback Desi Sanchez led the Pack to 201 gained yards and 14 first downs compared to the Badgers 209 and 6.

FINALLY THOSE Hosses from up North tripped Don Coyote 14-0 with a team that carried four all-staters, but not before the Pack put on an outstanding drive from their own 1 to the Mustang's 7. Rhinehart, Gile, and Sanchez provided the running.

Champion Gridders

WHAMMO! Phoenix JV's clash with Scottsdale's gridders to open a hole for Rhinehart. George Nera (45) helped the Coyote Jayvee cause.

Best In Their Class

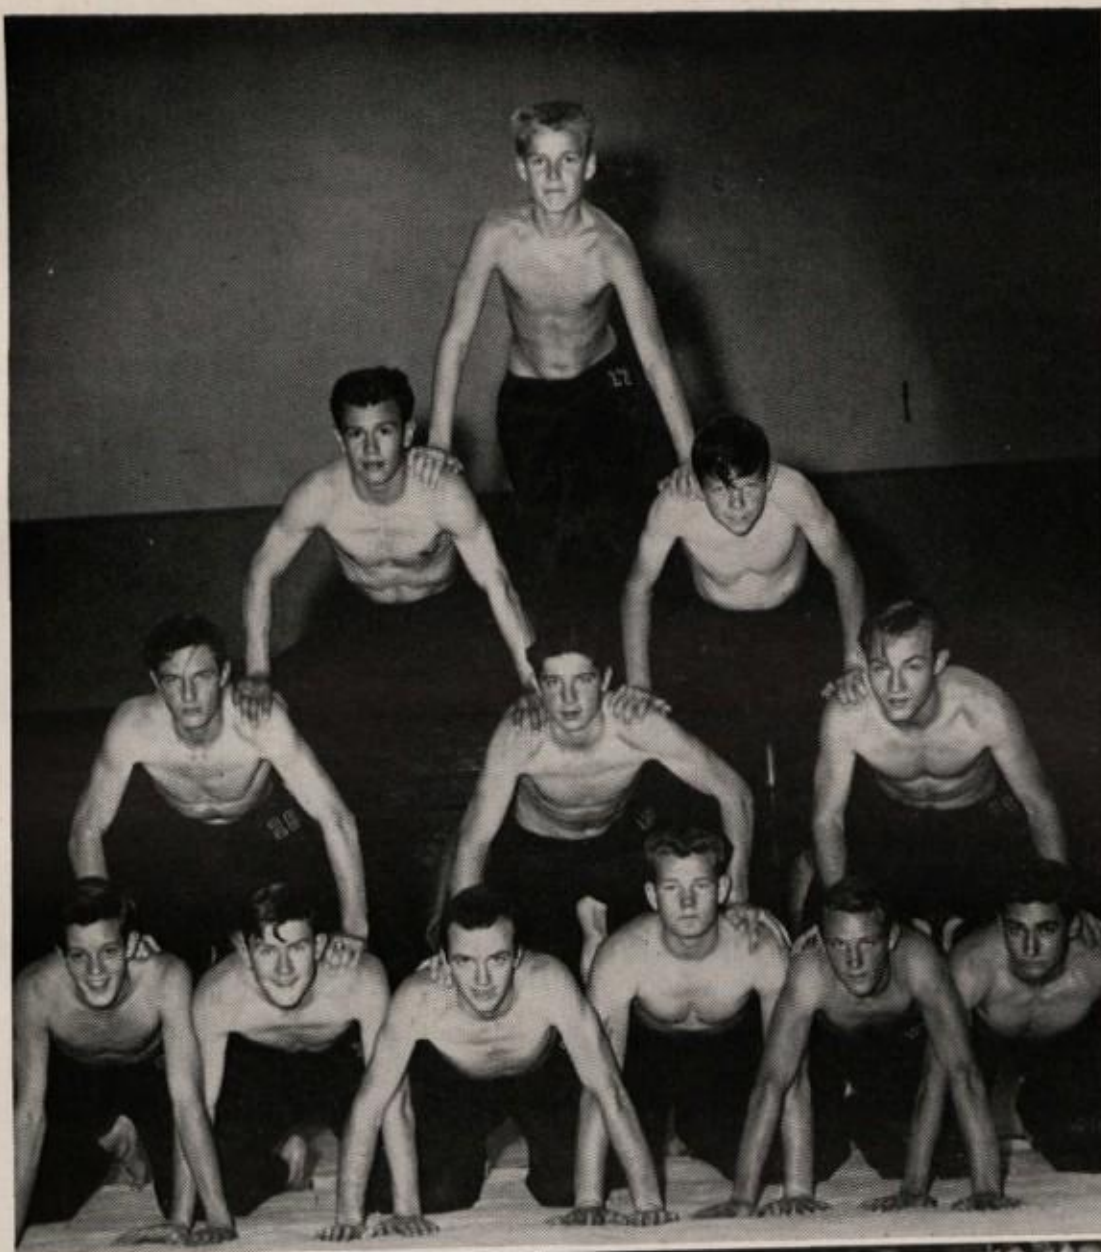

PHOENIX UNION'S JAYVEE CHAMPS were tagged as "finest in the state" as they won nine gridiron tilts and lost none under Coaches Bill Saunders and Jim Winningham in 1953. Backing the Pups' wins were linemen Dick Borden, Ronald Rich, Norman Jackson, George Nera, Ed Escarcega, Sumner Smith, Jon Conor, Jerry Garrison, Harry Stewart, Bill Moore, Darnell Haney, Bill Petrauschke.

MEANWHILE ALERT COYOTE backs Dan Rhinehart, Don Keith, Lou Rainbolt, Jack Wing, John Lee, and Louie Lopez kept their pigskin mates in the games by fine running which provided the scores. This year's Jayvee eleven produced capable players like Rhinehart, Garrison, Smith, Connor, and Borden who can take their talents into next year's varsity.

Muscle Men TRAINING AND NATURAL agility combined this year to produce an excellent crop of gymnasts. An established part of the physical education program, the gymnastics classes often had the gymnasium floor looking like an Olympics Games feature. UPPER LEFT: In the pyramid are (from top) Blanchard, Jackson, Baker, Caughlin, Tipper, Hummel, R. MESA GAME: Jumping for the elusive ball is Wolff as Lindemulder and Carver look on.

Every Game A Battle

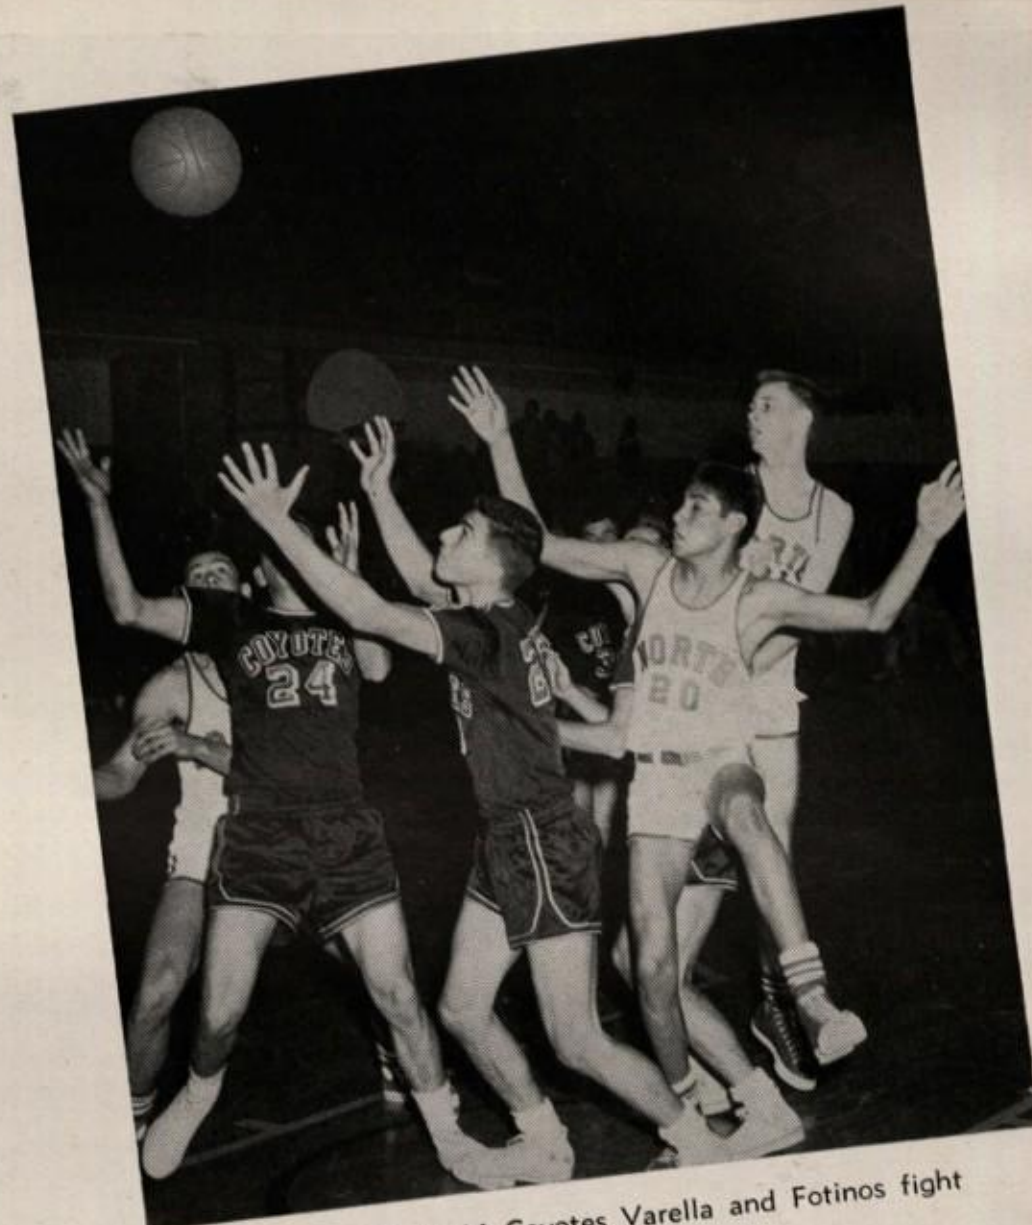

ies. Ending in fourth place Class A, and third in the city, Coach Ed Long's boys gave every opponent a real struggle. Guard Joey Nunez, proved a deadly shot from the outside and was everybody's choice for All-State and All-City honors. Floyd Wolff terrified Coyote foes with his rebounding, tip-ins, and ball handling, being named to the all-state second team for his combined abilities. But the entire team showed fine spark and spirit.

DON COYOTE'S hustling cagers went through a tough 19 game schedule, emerging with 12 hard-earned victor-

An Okay Season, But Watch Ol' Coyote In '55!

JUNIORS GENE Gilbert and Manuel Varella broke into the Coyote lineup to spark the attack and warn opponents to look out for ol' Don Coyote next year. Sophomore center Sumner Smith also gained a starting position after a rough battle with the capable and experienced Jim Carver, and will be helpful in the Phoenix Union offense for the next 2 years. Chuck Lindemulder, Mike Berry, and Bobby Manning provided good basketball for Phoenix Union fans.

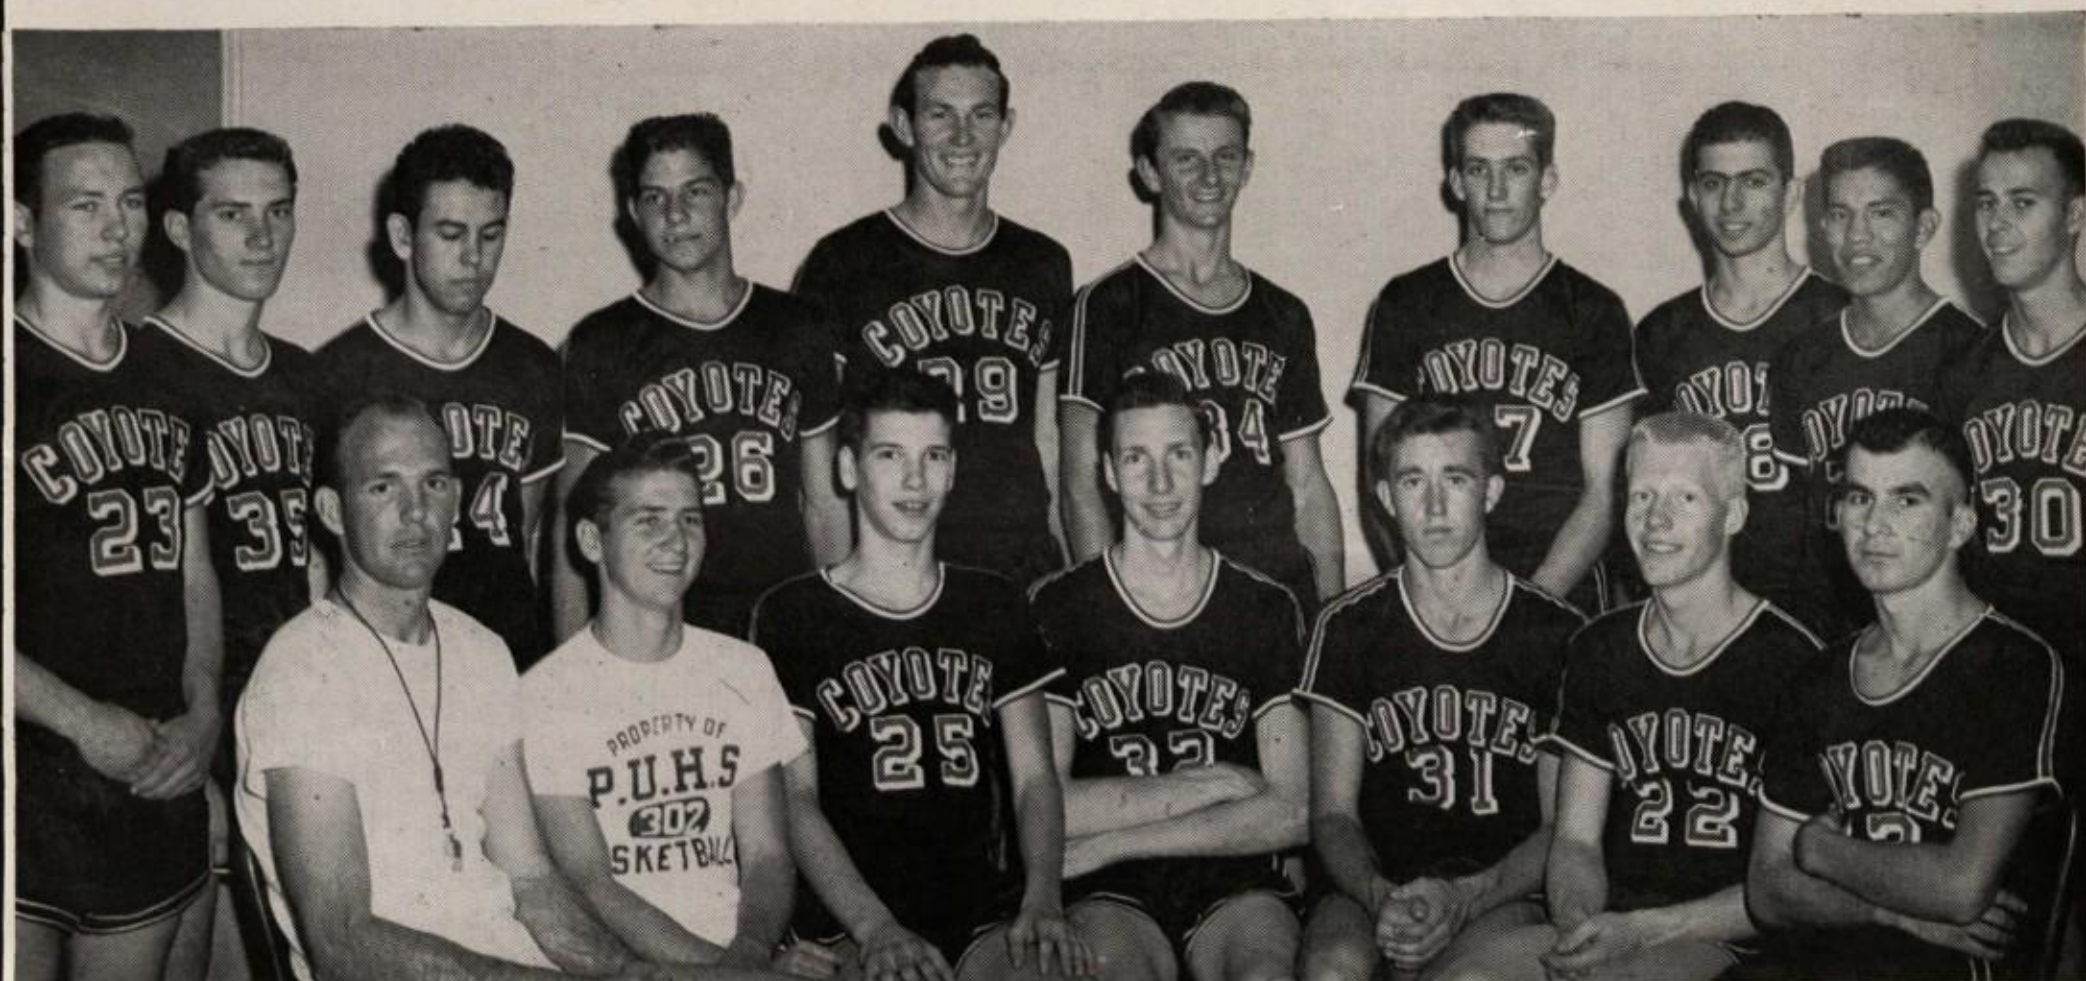

THE COYOTES WERE CONSISTENT. They did not win one and lose one to a single opponent. They defeated Glendale, Amphitheater, North, Tech, and Yuma twice each, Prescott and St. Mary's once apiece. They were unsuccessful in two attempts to beat Mesa, West, and Tucson, while losing once to Carver. At the Class A tournament in Tucson, Phoenix smeared Glendale 66-39, but lost to West High's Thunderbirds by 45-41.

Young Hoopsters Show Fine Progress

ALTHOUGH THEY DIDN'T set any records for achievement this year, Coach Sam Winningham's JV hoopsters produced some individual stars who should do well when varsity and junior varsity workouts begin next year. They finished the season with a record of 8 wins and 8 losses, playing sensational basketball at the close of the season.

GUARD JON CONNOR sparked Pup play all year with his outside set shots and fine floor ability. Big center Darnell Haney led the Pup offense, while grabbing rebounds off both backboards. Don Gibson, Ken Ramsey, Lige Franklin, Alfred Andersen, and Bob Warren also helped the Pups during the season's sizzling hoop campaign.

STARTING THE SEASON in hot fashion, Phoenix Union's freshmen basketball team, coached by Bill Saunders, took 9 out of 13 encounters this year. Delbert Hodge, Floyd Paine, Stephen Crookston, Lloyd Beachem, Pat Warren, and Lige Franklin combined their talents to make the freshman team one of the state's best. Some of these boys will make things even hotter for Don Coyote's opponents next year.

Bottom Row: Daniel, Whitaker, Ortega, Booker, Keith, and Jackson. Team gave unusual impetus to the manly sport.

No Grunt, Groan Here; It's All Scientific

WRESTLING WAS a new sport at Phoenix Union this year and it proved to be fairly successful. Jim Whitaker, Ramon Daniel, Paul Ortega, John Lee, George Henderson, Don Keith, Bill Cheetham, Norman Jackson, Ron Montgomery, Mike Beck, and Bill Ismay were on Coach Sam Winningham's first string. Physical Ed classes provided reserves.

OTHER ARIZONA schools also took up the sport, based on scientific principles rather than the familiar TV grunt and groan techniques. Ismay, Keith, and Lee also took first place honors in the state tournament. As a team, the Pack managed victories over Scottsdale and Glendale. All but three of these husky fellows will be returning lettermen next season.

Boom! Went Their Bats ♦ ♦ ♦

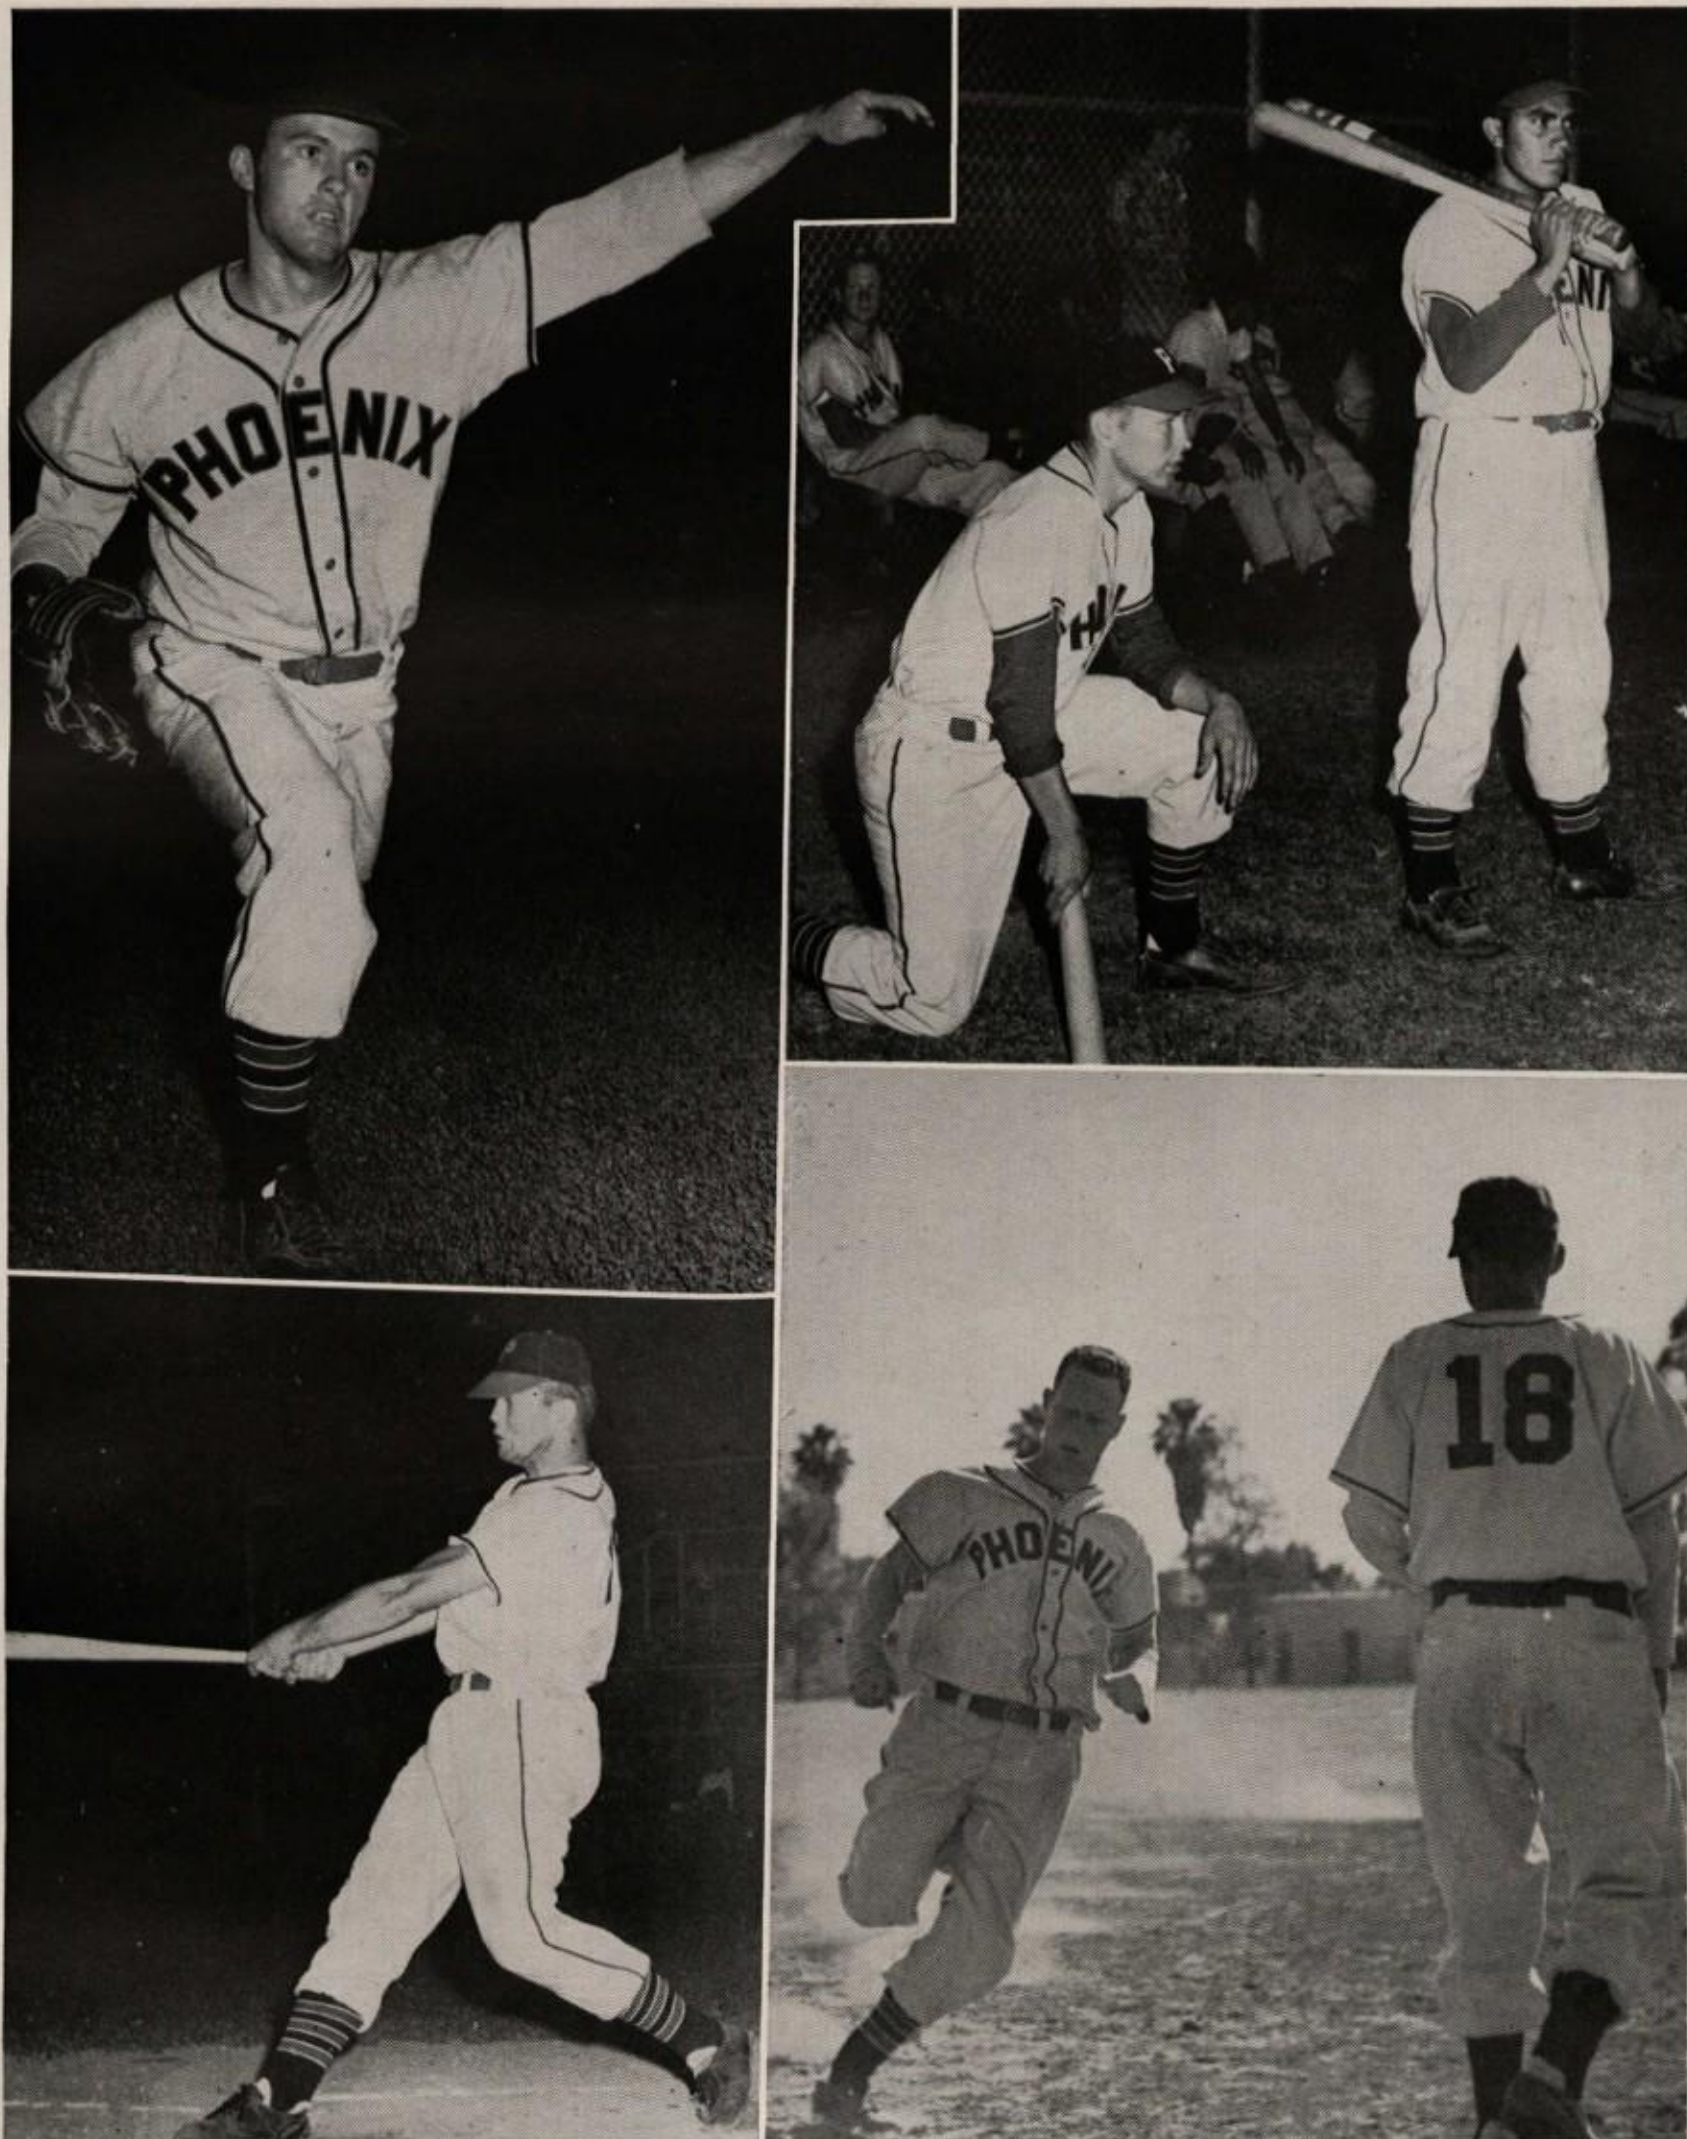

COYOTE BASEBALLERS gave everybody a good horsehide game. While completely humbling Tucson, the Pack lost to North. Mesa edged Don Coyote, but Tech, West, St. Mary's, Amphitheater, Yuma, and Glendale all dropped decisions to the Red and Black's booming batters.

HITTING LEADERS were Joe Duffy, Gary Herman, Chuck Pearson, and Richard Pantoya. The Coyotes also had a good double play combo in Benny Ruiz, Bob Manning, and Carlos Vasquez. Ralph Caldwell and Joe Nevarez carried pitching roles with Lew Rainbolt doing relief mound duty. Capable Martin (Pug) Marich was varsity baseball coach.

Speed Merchants

COYOTE FANS weren't denied the thrills that go with a team victory. In a display of peak form, Pack tracksters showed their heels to opposition in the City Meet.

Champions Of Field And Flying Cinder Paths

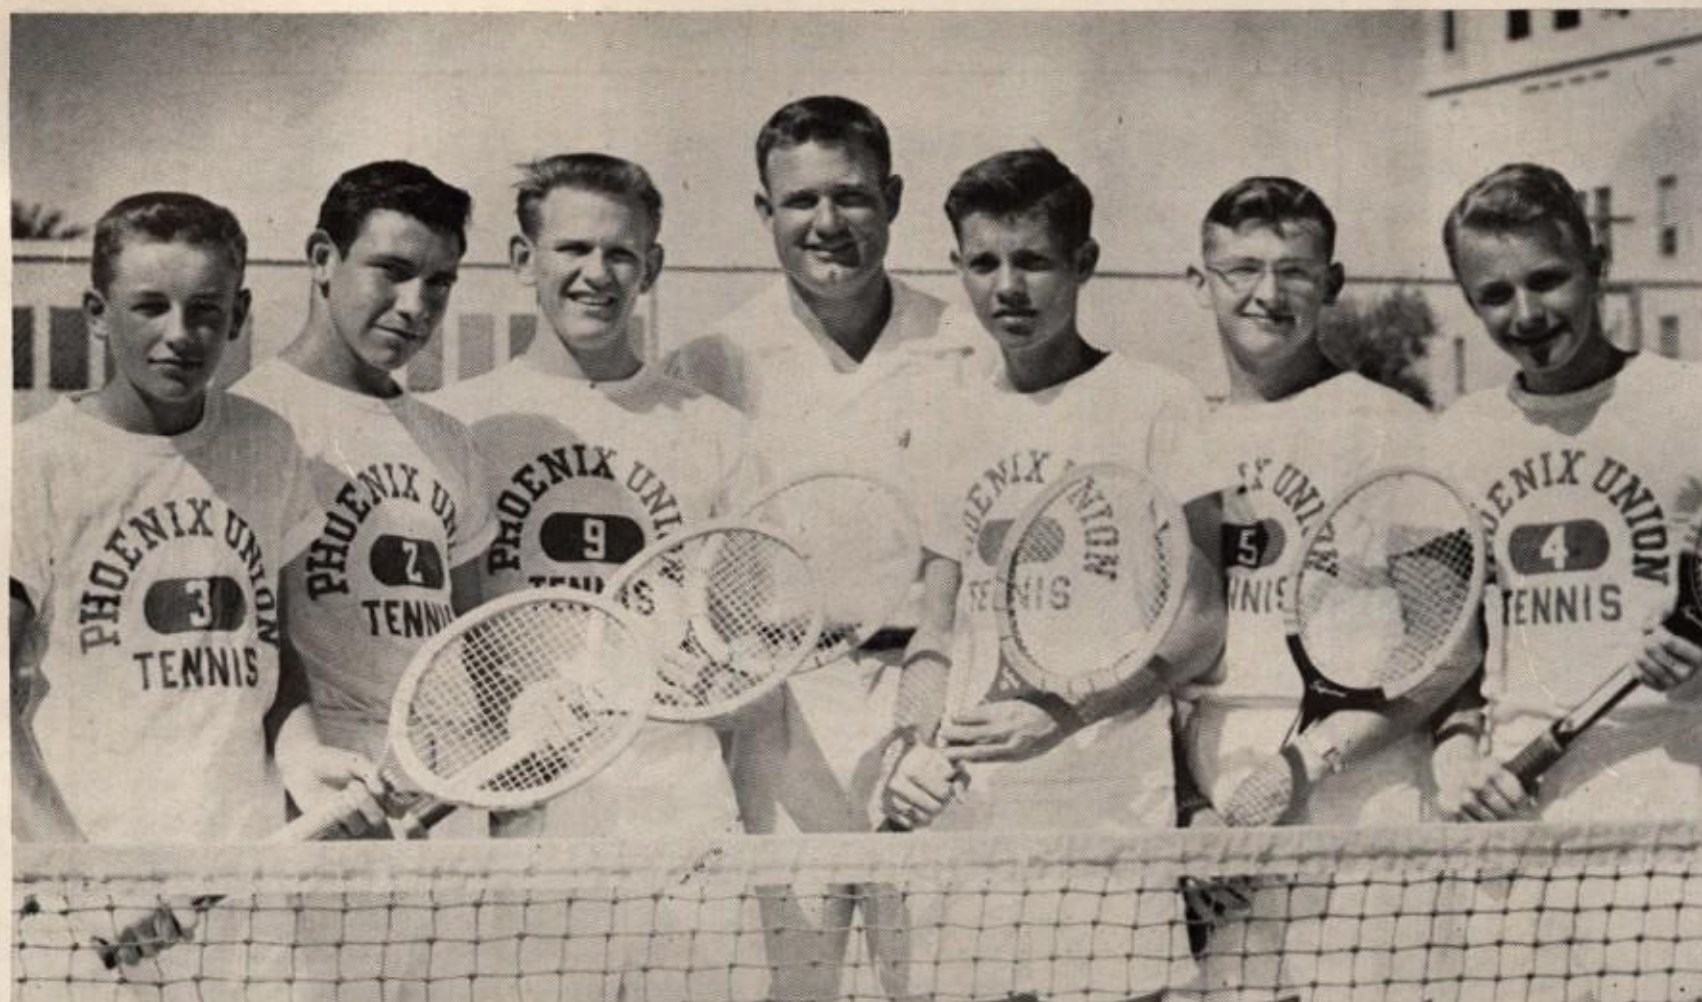

HIGHLIGHTING ANOTHER outstanding season for Coach Steve Carson's Coyote track and field squad was the city track meet, in which Phoenix Union dethroned strong North High to take the championship over nine other schools. Individual records reached a new high as the Coyotes fought determinedly for every point. Undefeated Ray McKisson won the mile in 4:37.9, to set a new record while defeating North's defending champion, Larry Gilden. McKisson also captured the 880, edging team mate and defending champion Bob Shankland.

MIKE BERRY TIED for first in the high jump, clearing a record shattering 5-10³/₄. Tom Council won the 440, Gilbert Nuanez took high point honors, winning the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Last event of the evening, the half mile relay, gave the Coyotes victory. Dan Rhinehart, Louie Escoto, Jerry Garrison, and Nuanez ran the relay in 1:32.8.

THE PACK WAS STRONG in the running events all season, but Bill Lairson, Sherman Gile, and Irvin Porterie gave the Coyotes their share of points in the shot put and discus. Lairson won both events in the Mesa dual, in which the Coyotes far outclassed the Jackrabbits. Next year the Coyotes should be just as rugged, as several of this season's top performers were underclassmen.

WINNER! Champion Miler Ray McKisson hits the tape to win the Glendale Invitational in 4:41.7.

Tennis Varsity

Rifle Team

TENNIS TEAM: Lind, Lyles, Upshaw, Coach Patterson, Wright, McGee, Wycoff.

With Steady Aim—

ROUGH COMPETITION had the tennis varsity on the spot this season, but the boys gave a good account of themselves every match. While losing to Tucson, which remained undefeated all year, the Coyotes whipped Mesa 5-2, Buckeye 7-0, and Glendale 7-0. Four lettermen will return next fall.

SUCCESS ACCOMPANIED every Rifle Team effort this year. They won national third place honors in the Sixth Army Interscholastic Match, and sharpshooter Michael Scofield took top honors nationally. The team made trips to Pueblo, Colorado, and Long Beach, California, winning both matches. They also won the sectional match in the National Rifle Association's junior championships. Rifle team qualified this year as a regular Coyote sports activity.

RIFLE TEAM: At the firing range are (standing) Rockwell, Scofield, Little, Gibson, Kerr, M/Sgt. Alvarez, coach. KNEELING: Muirhead, Phillips, Averkiou, Yanez. Membership on the team is not limited to those in ROTC.

Racqueteers On The Ball

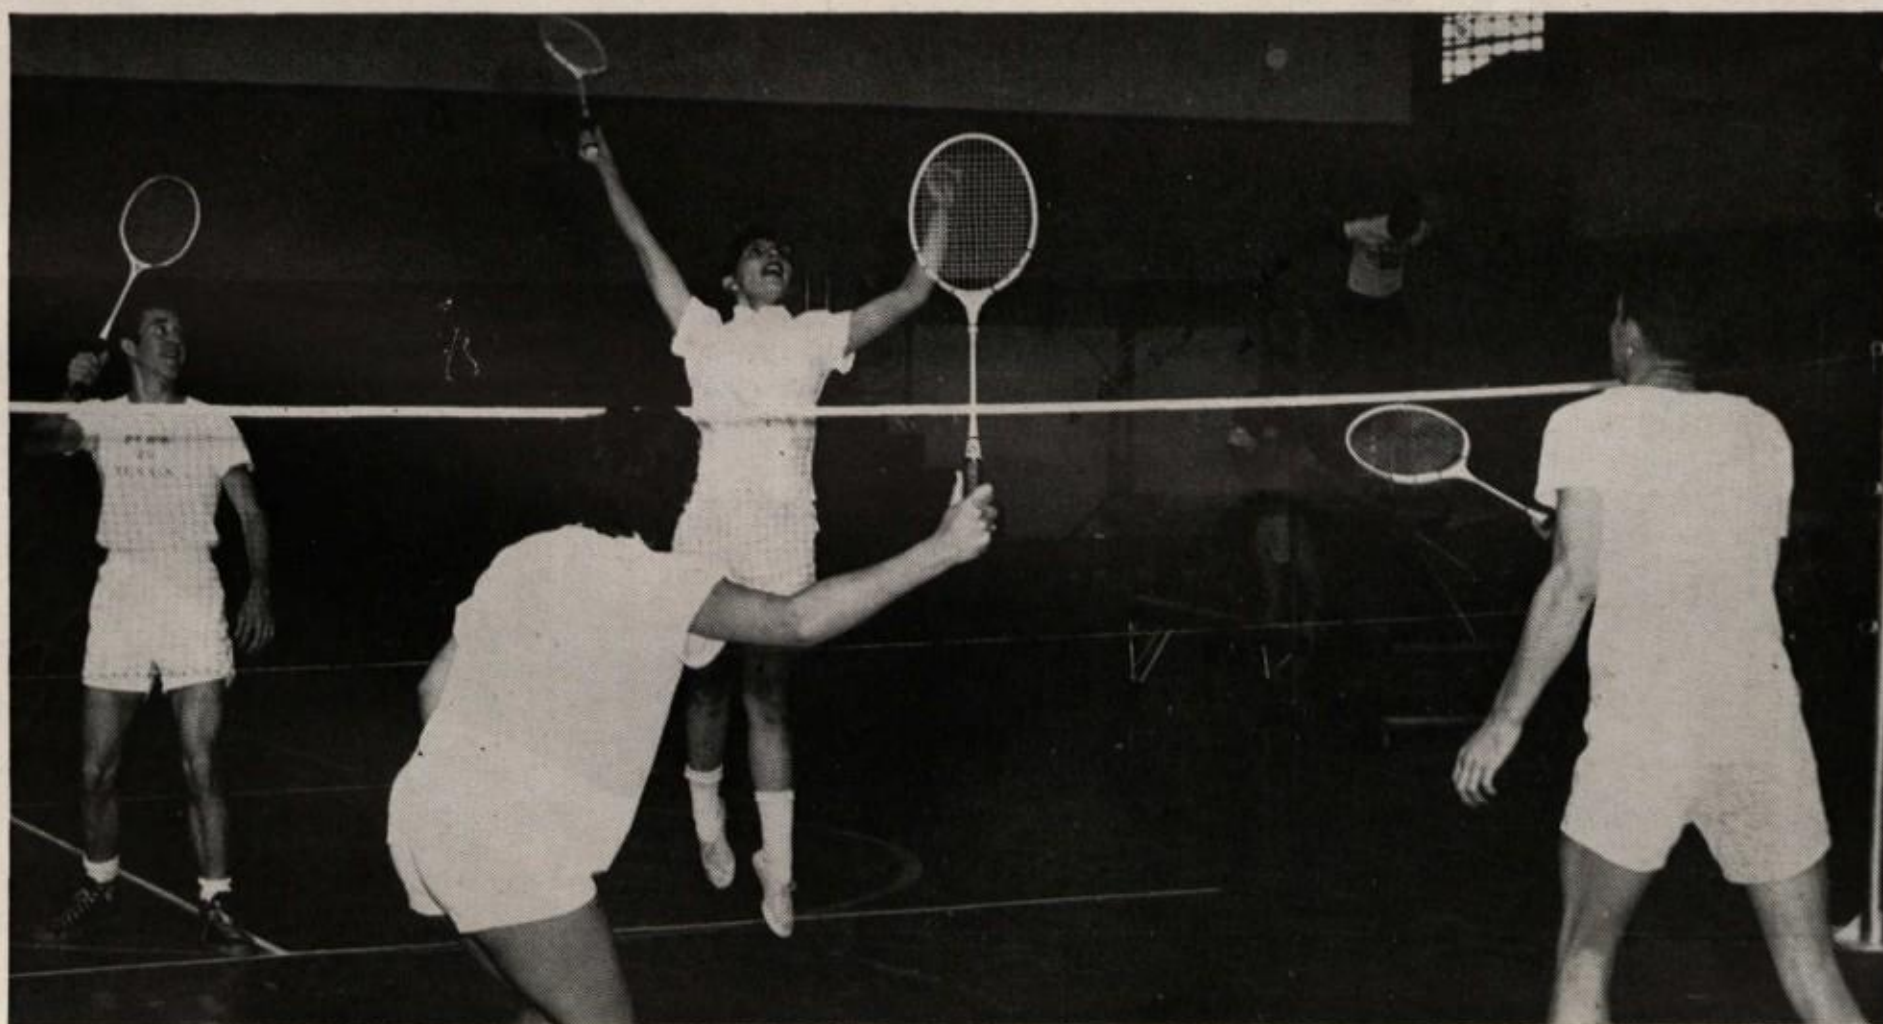

GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM this year included Eager, Hatch, Long, Bixby, and Bunch.

Netting A Good Season

GIRLS VARSITY TENNIS did very well, playing 20 matches against Class A teams, including one overnight trip to Yuma. Also on the Tennis Team's schedule were matches with five Class B groups. The girls learned that smaller schools can produce terrific tennis players!

FOR GIRLS WISHING to learn tennis, lessons were given every day during first semester. From this Tennis Club came a snappy frosh team. The club also held a GAA tourney. Miss Louise Branigan was tennis coach as well as adviser of the Girls Tennis Club.

WATCH THE BIRDIE! Carver, Mahaffey, Sanchez, and Butler play a badminton exhibition match during a gym assembly.

Always Something New Planned . . .

ADMIRING THE Girls Letter Club bulletin board are these club officers who led the select group in a myriad of activities throughout the year. A major project was sponsoring the successful Frontier Dance where hundreds of Coyotes hopped to Western music. Another project was the annual over-night trip to the Grand Canyon. From left, are Margaret Esquibel, Rena Sanchez, Sally Tussey, Joanne Lewis.

These Modern Girl Athletes—Ever Active

ON THE AIR! These girl athletes went on the air when they participated in Della Martin's radio program. At right, Margaret

GIRL ATHLETES: Happy over their successful year are these members of the Girls' Athletic Association. From left in the First Row are: Yonug, Lopez, Page, Avila, Mahaffey, Maxey, Kulinovich, McFarland, Thonen, Dixon, Lopez, Hatch, Robledo, Tang. Row 2: Tussey, Welch, Chavez, Pena, Bilbert, Salazer, Benner, Austen, Ordezt Waddell, Manahan, Kight, Keith, Cook, Schmidt, Albright.

Always Active And Happy!

PLAYDAYS, EXERCISE, and entertainment constitute the activities of these athletes. Besides being the largest organization in school GAA is also very active. They had numerous pop corn and candy sales, and adopted needy families for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Having playdays with other schools and among themselves helped to build up their spirit of fun and good sportsmanship. School takes on a fresh, new complexion for those who join an athletic group and take part in the daily competition. In fact, many regret the shortness of each day when the after-school program gets under way!

GIRLS' TENNIS CLUB: Top - Calhoun, Barra, Wood, Wainwright, Castillo, Wallace. Middle - Lyon, Walters, Tang, Miss Branigan, Bunch, Dixon, Garcia. Bottom - Crain, Hallis, Moore, Bixby, Eager, Long, Hatch.

The More You Practice— TENNIS CLUB activities interested many this year. This is definitely one sport that offers immediate rewards; the more you practice the better you get. The girls batted balls enthusiastically, always with an eye on the Tennis Team ladder.

COMPLETE WITH five singles ladders and two doubles ladders, Badminton Club now boasts more than 115 members. This year the club had a mixed doubles ladder, boys playing badminton with the girls once a week. Playdays with other schools in the Valley, in Prescott, and at the State Badminton Tournament were highlights of the girls' athletic program.

In Sharp Focus:

FOR THE SECOND time this year the national spotlight was turned on Phoenix Union. LOOK magazine photographers, following a visit last fall by LIFE'S Margaret Bourke-White, spent several days on the campus shooting pictures of class activities. Here, LOOK Cameramen Dan Fowler and Robert Vose are shooting a girls' basketball game as part of the feature to be used in the nationally-prominent publication.

Valedictorians

Salutatorians

SPOKESMEN for the Class of '54 are Ralph Caldwell, salutatorian; Sally Esler and Gene Falck, valedictorians, and Marilyn Gilliland, salutatorian. "Ideas will theme their Graduation Night talks."

And Now, Goodbye!

FOUR YEARS OF STUDY and play are ending for the Class of '54. Starting as bemused freshmen, they emerge purposeful seniors planning their next step into the adult world. College invites many; others have already found jobs or have decided their future vocations. All will remember their days at Phoenix Union and the friends they made there. Moreover, they'll continue to profit by what they have learned. Class speakers voiced the graduates' thinking somewhat when they declared, "Our country's strength lies in our ability to create, express, control and implement ideas."

DITCHIN' SCHOOL are these seniors, lazily sunning and swimming at Encanto Park while less fortunate underclassmen plod through another day. Traditional Senior Day was held May 4th. But the seniors paid next day — with sunburn!

Nationally Honored

Top Group, Row 1: (left to right) are Southwick, Dvorak, Cunningham, Hogue, Bone, Gould, and Gound. Row 2: Garrett, Lockhart, Grabowski, Tussey, Altschul, Pace, and Esler. Row 3: Zapata, Frederick, Whitmer, Fish, Howell, Pappas, Hatch, Sanchez, and White. Row 4: Mahaffey, Nakagawa, Hoover, Page, Kulinovich, Penrod, and Heberlee. Row 5: Marquez, Huffman, Neal, Ong, Lindemulder, Luther, Berlemann, Caldwell, Mitchell, Lloyd, and Averkiou. BOTTOM GROUP, Row 1: Laird, Waddell, Wolff, Smith, Schmidt, Ross, Szabo, Simmons, Larson, Bradshaw, and Compton. Row 2: Anderson, Bergero, Larson, Gilliland, Allred, Tang, Dang. Row 3: Kittell, McIntyre, McBride, Cienfuegos, Ong, Lee, Nickell, and Basinger. Row 4: Johannpeter, Plock, Lueba, Peck, Deming, Goldfarb, and Palais.

FIREWORKS follow signing of the Gadsden Purchase agreement. Below: Beginning of Phoenix Union High School's "Revolution Dance" protesting the Gadsden Purchase.

The Magnificent Masque Of The Yellow Moon . . .

MAGNIFICENT IS THE word for the 1954 Masque of the Yellow Moon which this year portrayed in color, music, dancing, and drama the 100th Anniversary of Gadsden Purchase.

DEDICATED TO ITS originator, Cordelia M. Perkins, this was the 23rd annual presentation. Over 3000 students from seven high schools and Phoenix College participated, and even blustery weather failed to dim the pageant's striking beauty. General director was Mrs. Virginia Duncan of North Phoenix High School. Mr. Willard Jacquot was stage manager.

Chasing Rainbows

A person who will not pause to look twice at a rainbow must be a very busy person, preoccupied with his own petty thoughts, or an extremely dull one. The rainbow is that moment of rapture that results when sky and earth meet in passionate embrace. It is a shining arc of color that makes earth and sky one. When it occurs, the observer is the most fortunate of mortals. He should not let one second of the heavenly ecstasy before him go unattended lest he miss his full share of the treasure flowing in the sky.

A little boy with a sprinkler can create a rainbow, or at least part of a rainbow. Our concern, though, is with that masterful creation of Nature that seems to fill the whole world with color when conditions are right. When they are right, there must be three factors in proper balance. First, there must be a source of light, which in our case is the sun. (The sun makes the best rainbows because of the wide range of colors within its spectrum, whereas moon bows do not have brilliant coloring.) Second, there must be present rain, which consists of a body of spherical water drops, upon which the sun can shine. (Cloud particles are too small.) Third, the sun, rain and the observer must be in proper position to each other. The rainbow, then, is the result of the sun's light being refracted by the drops of water which form rain. The sun must be at least below fifty degrees angle to the horizon, behind the observer who faces the storm, in this case, a sheet of falling raindrops.

Refraction, which means the bending of light waves as they pass from one medium, air, to another medium, water,

Dear Nona,

We really had some wonderful times this year but I guess all good things must come to an end. I sure do hope you get to go to college and that I'll see you sometime again.

Sincerely,

Dear Mona,
You're a nut - but I still love ya.
I've never enjoyed knowing anyone more than you - you're a nut. May you have all the success in the world and don't go doing any thing bad you slob. We'll have a ball

I hope I see you around you

It may be (look who's talking) and you be real good.
God Bless and keep you

Dear Nona,

Never Pages

I'll never, as long as I live, forget you and your magnificent personality and how nice you were to me and invited me into your group and really made me feel at home! That jolly that we took on Senior Ditch Day was one of the most happy memories I have of my high school years. And Oh yes! that glorious English class and all those neat little jokes. All in all I'll say again you are beyond a doubt a really swell girl + pal.

Don't ever forget me
Bob

And I'll see you I hope
in later years

is accompanied by dispersion, a measure of refraction to separate colors or create a prism effect. The length of the path of the sun's ray, passing through a raindrop, determines the dispersion or color separation. If the sun's ray, entering the raindrop, can be reflected off the side of the raindrop before being refracted out into air again, its path length within the drop will have been doubled and the effect of its dispersion powers also doubled. Very simply described, we have then a ray of light entering a spherical water drop, of which rain is formed. It is internally reflected or it bounces off the back surface and emerges in a different direction from which it entered. In the process the colors of the light ray are dispersed or "sprayed out" upon leaving the water drop. The observer, in the correct position, would have reflected on his eye one of these "sprayed out" color beams, red, for instance, a red sparkle from one particular raindrop. Another raindrop, in a different position, would reflect yellow light, and still another raindrop, in another position and viewed from another angle, would reflect a blue light. Drops in different angles reflect different colors.

The most brilliant rainbow, the primary bow, is made by light that is reflected only once inside the raindrop, and has the arc of its outer or red band about forty-two degrees radius from the center, the inner or blue side of the band at a slightly smaller angle. The secondary bow, in which the light is reflected twice within the raindrop, has the colors reversed because in the double reflection the dispersion was turned around. Here the red, the inner band, is about fifty degrees of arc and the blue, the outer band, is at a slightly larger angle. A double rainbow is both the primary and secondary bows.

It is all very confusing. Maybe it is best to forget the mechanics, and view it with the awe of a small boy witnessing his first rainbow, not knowing then that the beautiful had dawned on his soul for the first time.

Dear Nona:

Here we are at the end of a rather wonderful year - and for me it is my last - I almost wish I could start all over again - but I sure am not going to try to.

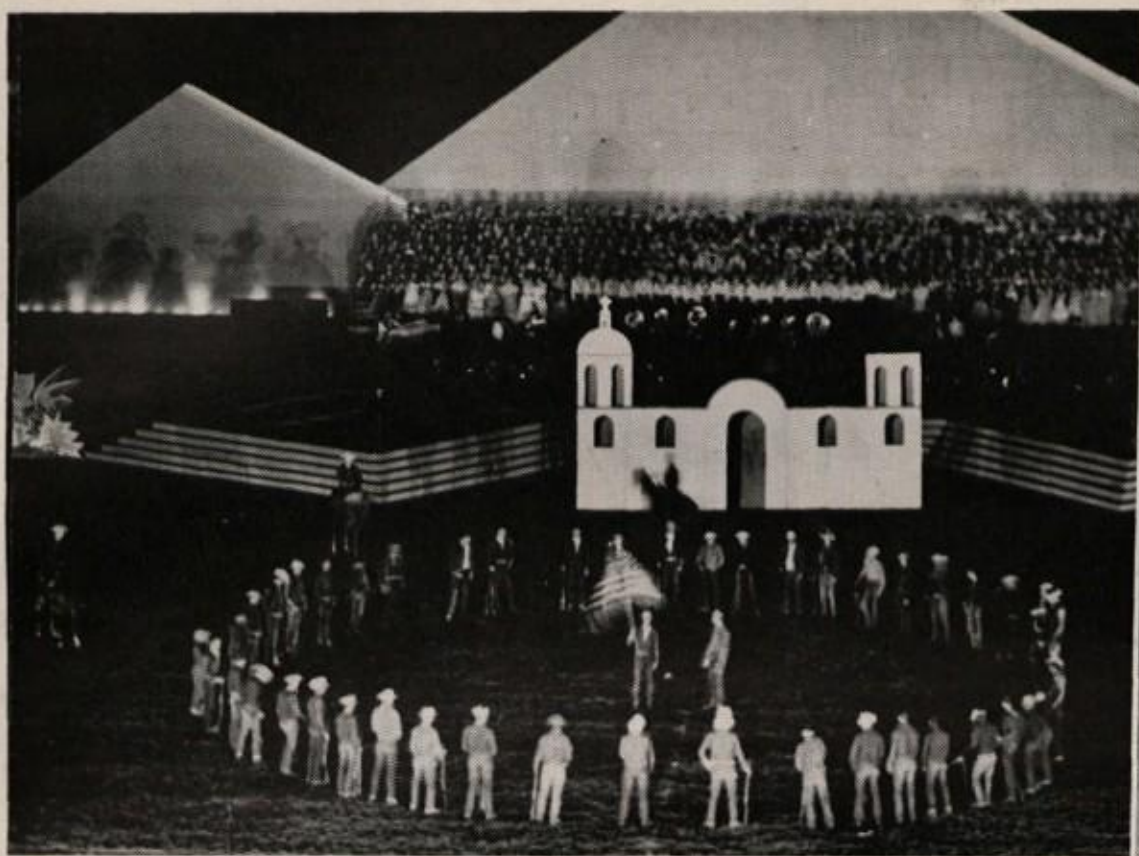

Nona I sure have enjoyed having you for a friend the past few years, and hope this won't be the end.

Remember all the fun we had in selling - Well those days are over now with just the wonderful memories.

Good luck to a great sweet girl -

The Masquers:

FAMOUS VISITOR: Bill Mauldin, Class of '39 and former Coyote Journal cartoonist, visits his old school and sketches once more on the drawing board he used 15 years ago. With the celebrated

WATT'S AHEAD

Only time will tell what's ahead for each of you: maybe fame . . . or fortune . . . or, maybe both. In any case, the real measure of success is not fame or fortune; it's freedom. Freedom to think, freedom to speak, and freedom to act. Your biggest responsibility is the protection of those freedoms for yourself and for others. What's ahead depends on your efforts. Fame and fortune have little value without freedom, so we must all be alert to combat any force that attempts to take our freedom from us.

are we still friends?

Good Bye 54

Well keep, another year has gone by, and what a year its been, nothing quite like it.

We really had a good ol' time in Southwest history didn't we? (Even if we didn't learn anything).

I hope you have a swell time in college next year, when you go. I just know you'll love everything about it. With your swell personality I know you'll go a long ways if whatever you try to do.

Its been a real pleasure knowing you for the past six years. I just hope our friendships lasts, and doesnt die out. Like others sometime do.

Good Luck Always
Jay Main

Dear Nona
You are a real swell girl and I have enjoyed knowing you in the past years. Please don't get drunk unless I am around I remember me when you were the first drink

Dear Nona,
remember when we met at Frutiger?
didn't we have a drunken brawl?
its been a great knowing
you. Lots of Luck.

Dear Nona,
 Here's wishing "my ole dad" loads of luck and happiness. We've had lots of fun running this school and hope we can all get together sometime this summer and go catlin around. Be good gal.
 Love ya,

Nona lots of fun
 Its been this last knowing you semester, and I hope to see you around next year. I'll lots of luck.

Dear Nona,
 so the craziest gal
 I know. You're real swell, and always stay that way. Here's wishing you all the luck in the world.

To Nona,
I love you truly,
truly dear.

I hope you have a very nice future with lots of luck to help along the rest road ahead.
I was sure a pleasure knowing you all this time, and hope we will always be good friends lots of love and luck

To Nona,
Been really sweet knowing you all these years. Happiness and success be yours always.

I hope you have lots of fun (and I know you will)
in the future.

Love ya - see you

Nona - Remember all the goofy things that we have done? Remember the time we went to Prescott and got lost up the National Forest with Doug and you, Annie, me, Paul, Bruce and Whitney? I could go on and on for pages with the Junior-Senior Prom and the ride out to the Base (Luke)? I hope these are the most important ones. I hope our friends like well be full of more memories - for I hope our friendships will last for years to come - and I think it will. Good luck and may you always be your friend, Charlotte Koorak Nona - a real swell gal the best. who rode of Kirk. Pat Woodgate always be your friend, Charlotte Koorak

Nona,
a real sweet girl who I've really gotten to know this past year. She's been loads of fun having you in English. You're a rock in a half. Even though we've had arguments, we've always made up. I want to wake you all the back in the world & I'm every thing you do. I hope we see each other again before we die. Nona, it seems like we get along so well all the time. How do I hate why were we so good of friends.
All those nice sly things we say to each other, so sweet like. But even though we fight, Nona I want to say I like you alot & I want to be your friend for always. May you get every thing you wish you'd may God bless you in everything you do forever & always.
I hope you
